PRAAYER CIRCLE

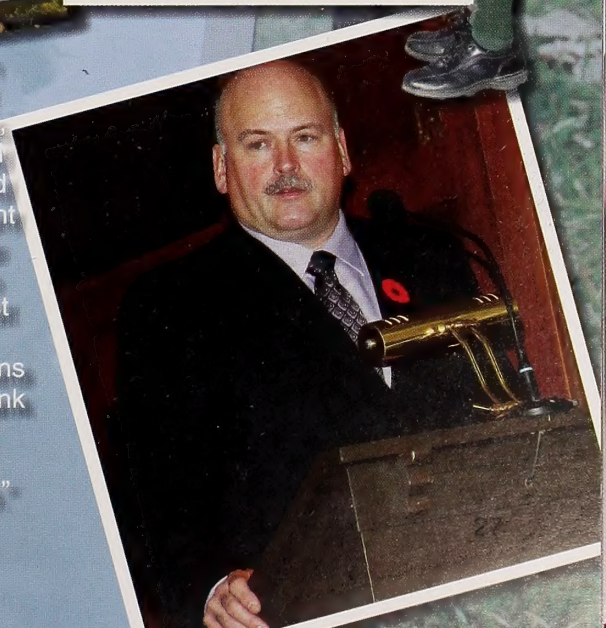

REMEMBERANCE DAY

What we fail to remember is that the men who went off to war in 1914 and 1939, and the ones fighting today in Afghanistan, had nicknames themselves, just like 'Smiler'. They had mothers, sons, brothers, and friends. And when they left for the front, they kissed their loved ones goodbye in the hopes that they would return. And far too many did not. There are no words to describe how important it is for us to never forget the sacrifice of so many that have come before us. And when I see a veteran, it is even difficult for me to muster the appropriate words. One phrase will always be the most appropriate: Thank you.

As you sit in this Memorial Chapel today, think of the many Andreans who have come before you. And take time, in your own way, to thank them. For it was, in part, their sacrifice, their valour, and their bloodshed that has allowed us to live in relative peace today... Remember them, and ensure that their names "liveth forevermore."

Two years ago, following a 2009 season which was defined by tremendous frustration and disappointment, I said the following words in my speech at this assembly. "The challenge which lies before us is significant, but we will meet it. Our rivals dealt us a serious blow, but we will use every means at our disposal to pick ourselves back up. We will be a program which places new championships on that empty banner. That hollow banner must serve as a daily reminder for every player and coach in our program that we are not where we need to be." "Fight on, my men, Sir Andrew said. A little I'm hurt, but not yet slain. I'll just lie down and bleed awhile, and then I'll rise and fight again."

As I stand here two years later, I can state with absolute conviction, we have indeed risen and restored the championship luster of our football program. After a 6-0 start to the season, we ended our season with a frustrating 26-14 loss at the hands of the St. Mike's Kerry Blues. Despite an overall record of 6-1, a complicated tie-breaker dropped us all the way down to 3rd place in the CISAA standings and earned us a CISAA semi-finals rematch at St. Mike's.

Without question, that game marked a turning point in our season. After an outstanding week of practice which saw our players significantly increase their passion and work ethic. After St. Mike's decided to blast loud music over top of our bag pipers in the pregame warm-up, St. Mike's does not respect us. We came out torching the Kerry Blues 51-7 during my coaching career; I have not enjoyed many victories more than that systematic destruction of the once feared St. Mike's football machine.

The victory paved the way for a dramatic 27-22 championship win over the UCC Blues in the heart of their campus. It was a spine tingling moment to know that for one day, we made UCC's campus our house. Our ride to the Metro Bowl, propelled by a heart-stopping 22-15 triple OT victory over the unbeaten King City Lions in the Metro Bowl semi-final, allowed the entire Andrean community to jump on our bandwagon and become a part of our team.

The pride and emotion that we felt, going toe-to-toe with the Wilson Gators on the Rogers Centre turf in front of all of you, is something that our players and coaches will never forget.

The 2011 Varsity Football Saints wrote a remarkable story. Years from now, when I'm asked to describe the traits that enabled this team to achieve so much success, I will talk about our ability to meet every challenge, to bravely look ahead to the next mountain and climb it, and to firmly believe, in all of our hearts, that no stage was too big for us, no fight was too tough for us, and no opponent was too good for us. LG.

"Life never was intended to be easy. Rather, it is a period of proving and growth. It is interwoven with difficulties, challenges, and burdens. ... Yet these very forces, if squarely faced, provide opportunity for tremendous personal growth and development. The conquering of adversity produces strength of character, forges self-confidence, engenders self-respect, and assures success in righteous endeavor"

The U16 Football team faced adversity from the very start of the season. With 3 grade 10 players expected to be in our opening day starting lineup, there was a bitter sweet feeling when they were selected for the First Team after the opening camp. While we were happy for them, we knew there were now some holes to fill.

We were a team with enough size to make an impact but what we missed was experience and aggression. We had a bunch of really nice guys on our team. Having said that, the players of the U16 team battled every game, every series and every down. This group of young men showed what a brotherhood is all about. They went into every game ready to fight until the bitter end regardless of the score. A winless season is not a season you are usually proud about, but every player that stuck it out to the end of this season should be proud of their determination and honourable integrity.

I would like to thank the other coaches who worked along side me, teaching the game and motivating the players every week. Mr. Prezents, Mr. MacPherson, Mr. Brennagh, Mr. Stewart and my co-head coach Mr. Butcher. I'd also like to thank Mr Shields. After over 25 years of coaching football, Mr. Shields retired from coaching last year and took a back seat to the St. Andrew's football program. Behind the scenes, he provided us with, and did everything that football coaches don't want to do, but still needs to be done. His work is invaluable to the program and so again, everyone in the football program should say, "Thank you, Mr. Shields". BK.

Varsity Soccer

When we set off for Connecticut at the beginning of September, we had no idea that our season would evolve the way it did. After exhibition games against two of New England's best teams. We returned home pleased with our squad, but with our expectations very much in limbo. After 4 games, we sported a record of 1 win, 1 tie, and 2 losses. From then on the team went unbeaten. Winning the League Cup fired a warning signal to our competitors; the succession of league victories confirmed that our boys were for real. It was not until we travelled to Stanstead, Quebec for the CAIS National Championships that the team gelled and started to perform to a higher level. Your Saints found themselves in the quarterfinals against a strong squad from Appleby, we fell behind 2-0 very quickly, things looked bleak, but we had resolve. William White and Zain Hemani scored crucial goals to even the score and your Saints dug in to win a game that went to penalty kicks. From there they walked into a semi-final fight with perennial powerhouse St. George's, Vancouver. We found ourselves down again; they were a very good team that threatened every time they got the ball and defended our repeated attacks. Eventually, the better team shone through. In the final we were pitted against that team in blue from Toronto. The Saints created more chances in the first half in a heated and tense game. Adam Moodie bundled in a Marcantognini corner to put the good guys up by one. From there, the team, led by Greg Jansz, Hayden Neuman, Stan de la Torre and Mac Baker put on a defensive master class to keep UCC out of net and hand St. Andrew's its first CAIS championship since 2005. It was a tremendous team effort, and every member of the squad contributed to each victory. Only a few games later we found ourselves in a fight for the league title. Appleby proved to be a challenge on our previous meetings, and we went to Oakville knowing that a victory in our last league game of the season would guarantee us the title. In a back-and-forth game, your Saints proved their mettle and sent a clear message: we would not be beaten and the team claimed its first CISA league title since 2001. The only trophy left was the playoff title and two teams stood in our way. We dispatched Ridley 4-0 without allowing them a shot on goal. Rob Trocchia confidently stepped in for the final as we faced off against Appleby again. This time there was no doubt who the better team was: 2 beautiful goals from Marcantognini and an absolute bullet header by Jay Mackie brought SAC its fourth title of the season, an accomplishment unmatched by any other team in the history of the league, ever. DM & ND

This is the championship ball from the 200X season which I have prominently displayed in my office. That year, the U16 soccer team had a perfect season. Undefeated in regular season play, with a thrilling double overtime, shootout championship victory against Bayview Glen. The scores of those games, and the signatures of the players recorded on this ball. This is the U16A game ball from the season just past. I have written the scores of our games on it. We did not win a single game. This ball will have a place in my office beside this ball. Why you might ask? Because this season was a success. Not in the number of games won, or in the number of goals scored, but in the character revealed by this team in the face of adversity. I want to remember that this team showed up to practice daily with the intent to improve and develop as a team despite what the results were. Many practices ended with a fun game called Wembley. Many practices ended with players who hung around to take a few more shots on goal. Every Tuesday, this team was put through their paces by Mr. Ludwig. Mr. Cumming and I were exhausted just watching this rigorous training – but these guys gave it 100%. I want to remember this season. It's great to win, but winning really isn't everything. It's not a cliché! I'll be asking the boys to sign this ball too. MJ worked once again with a Co-Coach in Mr. Chadsey who was simply amazing. His demeanor, candor, and dedication to providing a sports education for his players, was second to none. He cared about each and every one of our players and shared in their successes and suffered in their failures. Thank you Michael for sharing in this very special year!

We both believe that the playing field is an extension of the classroom!!

Every player on this team was dedicated, committed and played for each other. They took pride in working every shift, contested every free ball, challenged every possession, and simply worked harder than their opposition, every game. Every single player made a significant contribution to our over-all success.

There were simply no egos to deal with. There were only two yellow cards all season, which in itself was incredible. These boys were self-less! No one missed practices without a real conflict and they were rarely late. When Mr. Ludwig worked with the boys, they gave him their all out effort. When the AYSC coaches ran their sessions, they listened and were attentive, knowing they were learning from very experienced European coaches. Our scoring was spread out amongst 10 players, which is simply remarkable.

We went undefeated in exhibition and regular season and entered the playoffs ranked first in the West Division. We were the only JV squad in the Tier 2 playoffs and beat Royal St. Georges College in a shoot out to reach the final against our historic nemesis TCS. In the end, TCS were better than we were and deserved to win the Tier 2 championship. We did not hang our heads. Our boys played their hearts out and simply lost to a superior team! We went 7 wins, 4 ties and 1 loss.

I want to thank our grade 12 players for all their efforts over the last two years - Constantine Bogdanow, Co-Captains Sean Smith, Mark Denton, John Knowles and John Cannon. These boys finish their JV soccer careers with a CISAA regular season and playoff record of 10w-2L and were the heart and soul of this team. Thank you, gentlemen, it was an honour coaching you. SK

The U16B Soccer team had a very successful season this year. The Junior Boys Division 3 league had 7 teams in total. Our record for the season was 4 wins, 1 tie and 1 loss putting us in second place going into the semi-finals. We had many highlights during the league games, but I will remember a few special moments for quite a long time.

After a very successful regular season, we came into the Semi-final match, facing The York School once again. It was another aggressive, exhausting match but once again we found ourselves celebrating a victory and we were through to the finals. Unfortunately, we were going to play the only team we had lost to in league play, Toronto French School. Also, the final match was to start just 45 minutes after the semi-final match was completed.

Toronto French School proved to once again be a substantial opponent and after 80 minutes, we were ready to accept the Silver Medal for the U16 Junior Boys championship.

I'd like to thank all the players of the U16B squad for making this season so much fun. Both in practice and in games, the team members were high-spirited and the team chemistry was nothing short of magic. Thank you, boys, for a fantastic soccer season. Also, special thanks to our Team Captain Hussain Akbar, and assistant Coach, Justin Lemieux Reale. Mr. McCue

With a record of 4 wins, 3 losses, and 2 ties, we squeaked into the final four playoffs seeded 3rd, just ahead of 4th place UCC who'd beaten us 2 out of 3. The other team to beat us was Hillfield, and as fate would have it, this would be the team we'd have to play in the semis.

We left SAC just after 7 in the morning for an early 8:30 start at the neutral Bayview Glen field. Despite the first half being very even, after only two shots on net, we were up 2-0, both goals beaute off the magic feet of Ricardo, while our defensive corps of Alonso, Diego, Bill, and Harry kept the ball away from our net. In the 2nd half, all of our practicing on creating space and executing accurate passes seemed to pay off, as we dominated, enjoying a great deal of possession, scoring a further 2 goals. Crisp passing by Jorge, Juan Manuel, Santiago, and Jerod allowed Aidan, Kyle, and James to be constant threats around the box. Boarding the bus with a clean sheet, we headed south for the championship match against St. Mike's. For the first twenty-five minutes we had all the play, missing on several scoring chances, including from the penalty spot. Their goalie made a number of truly outstanding saves, however, to keep the score even at zero. In fact, they couldn't register a shot on net until close to the end of the 1st half, and it was a beauty from their star centre forward, sailing over our goalie's head from outside the 18 yard line.

By midway through the 2nd half, it was clear our boys were pretty tired from the early start to the day combined with the energy expended in the previous match, as we struggled to press St. Mike's to cough up the ball. Their star forward scored 2 more terrific goals, ending the game 3 nothing in their favour.

Alas, it was not our day to perform miracles, but any time you finish higher in the playoffs than you do in the regular season, is a definite sign of progress and improvement. I owe a debt of gratitude to our outstanding captains, James Michaelis and Alonso Montes de Oca. Their example was true Andean all the way. Respect and admiration are also due to our First Football team for their example of unflagging effort, positive teamwork, and focused discipline. They definitely made a strong impression upon all the sport teams who walked by their field after practice each day.

My heartfelt thanks to all the players for putting in such a great effort and making every session together, whether laughing on the bus or rolling in the dirt playing for glory and milkshake prizes, great fun for all. DK

U14 Tier 2 Soccer

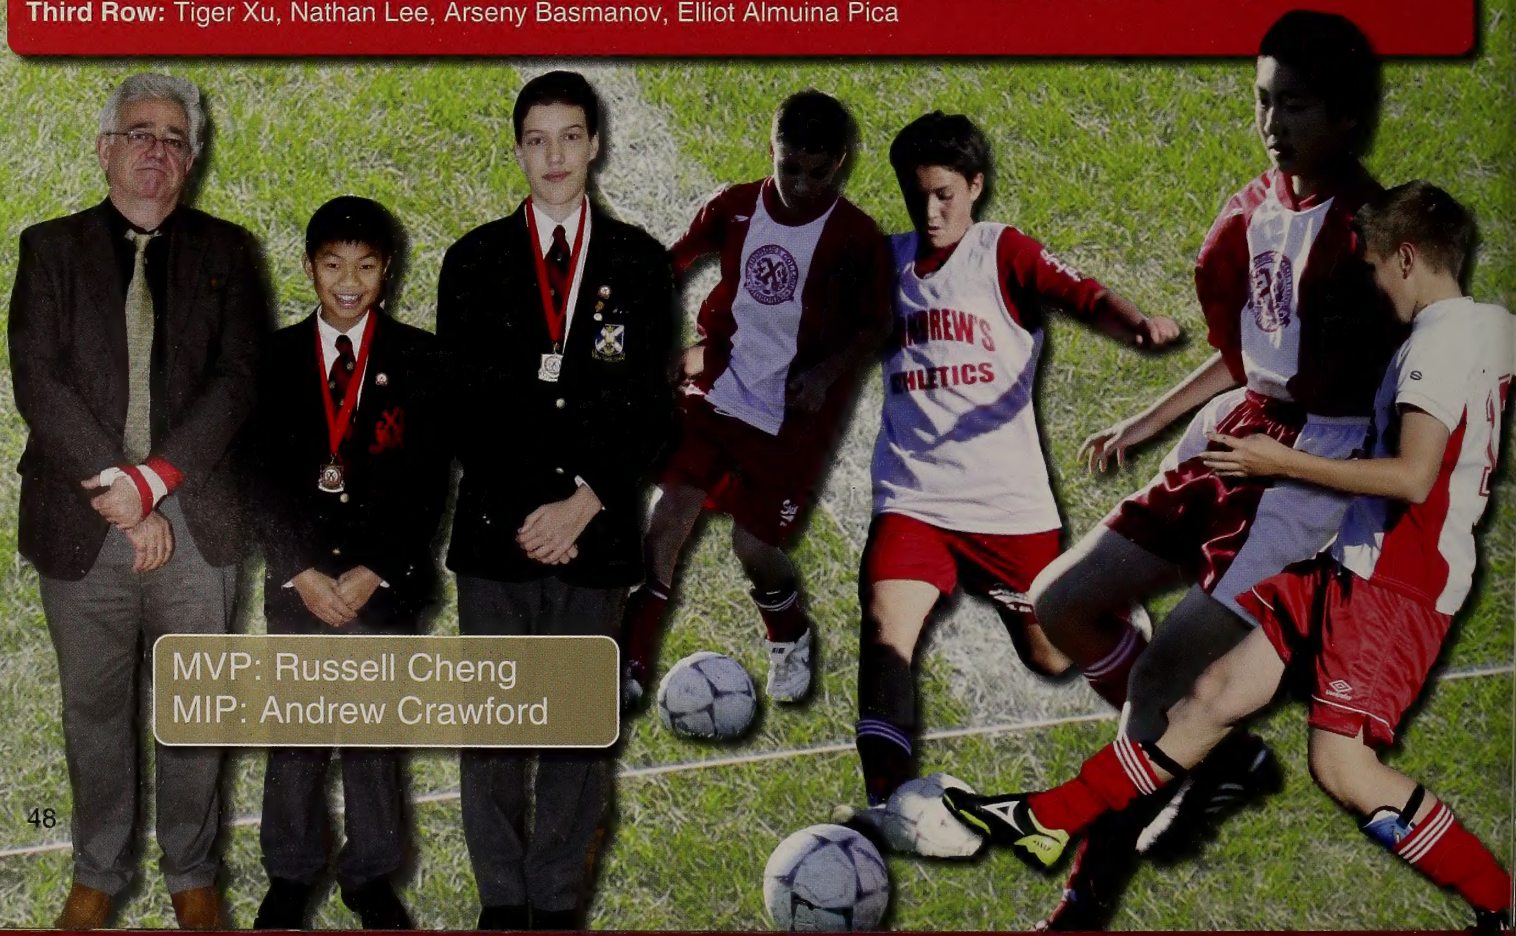

Tier 2 had another exciting season. Despite the fact that every game we played was against other schools' Tier 1 teams, we managed to be competitive in many games. Game in and game out the boys showed tenacity and courage. They could never be faulted for their effort.

Our team was made up of some very interesting characters, most notably Nathan "the crab" Lee. He was thusly named "the crab", because he could only run sideways.

Thank you fellas, for a great season. DJ

The U13 soccer team had a very successful season. It was the first time since 2002 that a team from St. Andrew's earned a silver medal at the CAIS U13 nationals and league championships in the same season. As coaches we quickly realized that we were stacked with an enormous amount of talent. Leading scorer, Nik Sediel finished the season with 24 of the team's 43 goals and Cooper stood on his head during the national tournament clinching 5 shutouts in 8 games. As coaches we realized that a winning team also requires a trio of gingers, a couple of hockey players on the d-line and a player willing to belt out Adele songs to pump the boys up on long bus rides to Hillfield. MD & JR.

This season I had the pleasure of coaching some boys for the second year in a row after having worked with them at the U12 level. It really is remarkable to see how much they can develop from year to year, not just with their soccer abilities, but with their character . . . and this was a season where we had to rely on our character quite a bit in order to stay focused and positive in many games where we were outmatched by more experienced teams. Our first game was a tough loss against UCC where we had a difficult time getting the ball out of our own half. It revealed the dedication and athleticism of many of our defenders though, as Jeffery Chen, Justin Lynn, Tyler Thomas, Tony Sul, and Robert Wang worked tirelessly throughout the game to keep the score respectable. It was during our second game, against Sterling Hall, that we scored our first goal. Callum Murphy, Brandon St. Pierre, and Joseph Yazdani all helped to build pressure around our opponents' goal, and it was Mac Houghton who finally found the net, with a massive celebration ensuing. Unfortunately, we lost that game – and then a few more – before putting together our greatest highlight against TFS. Andrew Currie, Daniel Panzures, and Nolan Roy all had standout games as they helped to create plays that would eventually lead to us scoring our second goal of the season. Nick Bowlin set-up Michael Lakkotrypis with a beautiful through pass, and Michael charged onto the ball for the strong finish. All this being said, there is no doubt that the busiest players on our team were our 3 goalkeepers. So, congratulations and a big thank you for working hard, sometimes frantically in the net, to keep the scores close . . . to our goalkeepers; Stathi Douramakos, Matthew Medhurst, and Connor LeClaire. SL

U12 Soccer

18 boys of many different skill levels came out in September to vie for a place on the U12 soccer team. It was quite an experience watching some of them kicking a ball and performing the basic drills. However, the team came together, and under the leadership of several strong players we headed into our first showdown at Homecoming against UCC. After a good, solid first half, we succumbed 5 - 0 to the talented Upper Canada side. Our next game was against Crestwood Preparatory College, another very disciplined team and we fell for a second time by a 5 - 0 score. A solid performance versus The Country Day School produced a tie and our best game of the season was 7 - 0 victory over Pickering College. We ended the season with a record of 2 wins, 1 draw and 5 losses. All the boys worked very hard and improved their skill level significantly. Special mention should be made to our captains Joshua Dunn and Will McHenry who led by example. In addition the coaches would like to congratulate Dalton Lehman and Saajan Sethi for the tremendous improvement that they exhibited during the season. Thanks to all members of the team for a fun season. MH.

Varsity Volleyball

Let's begin by introducing you to Varsity Volleyball –

we played 34 matches this season including OFSAA. We attended 4 of the highest caliber tournaments around including MacMaster and U of T. Most of the schools we played against were 3A or 4A in size and among the best in the province. Many of these schools shave volleyball as their specialty sport. And a few of these include provincial and club level players.

The best way to describe our season is...what a rewarding season! This year's team fought against all odds... we started with injuries and we ended with injuries. However, we were a team of fighters and the boys made the school proud. The boys were determined to be one of the best SAC volleyball teams in recent years. And they did it in great fashion. We had to improvise new positions, adapt to new plays and a higher level of competition. We created a team of versatile players all this in one season...something that usually takes 2-3 seasons to accomplish. The Boys were ready to play in the big Volleyball leagues and they did look good, very good at times, despite the lack of volleyball experience. We challenged some of the best teams in the province, where volleyball is a life style more than just a sport. We challenged teams like St. Mikes, probably the best team in Ontario for the past two years, Mississauga, close second and Eden, perennial AA champions, just to name a few. The boys were ready to represent SAC in the best of fashion, with heart, soul and determination. We finished the season with OFSAA in Stratford, where every player played with class. Had we had the whole team attending, we would have been the surprise of the event. Four of our starting six were unable to play for us. But we do not look back.. we look ahead. We thank the Graduating players... Captain Dylan Hussey (who was one of the top power hitters at OFSAA), captain Robbie Williams, Michael Sifton and Zach Seto, who made the tremendous switch from libero- to setter in one season - and he was nothing less than stellar, and Spencer Feeley.

The U16 volleyball team had its most successful season in more than two decades this year. We entered four public school tournaments and finished with a consolation championship, two silver medals, and one tournament championship. In our CISAA league, we started the season with a solid 4-0 record. However, a couple injuries in early October hampered our progress and we dropped two very close matches against Appleby and then St. Mike's. The losses cost us first place in the league and home court advantage for the finals.

After another undefeated season, the Saints entered the final 4 as the favourites where they faced St. Mike's in a re-match of last year's championship. The team play, consistency and energy of the Saints was too much for their opponents to handle, and the Saints took them in another 3-0 final to capture their second straight CISAA championship. Congratulations, boys! Throughout the season the boys worked extremely hard in practice, during sport conditioning sessions, and were incredibly consistent during games by keeping their energy high and focusing on the fundamentals and smart plays.

The Jr. cross-country team participated in five meets this season and faced different obstacles at each race. Whether it was steep muddy hills, tough competition, or just a bunch of girls hanging out on "Cabot Corner", your Saints faced these challenges with determination and speed. Our top two Under 14 runners, Elliott Powers and Cabot Mackenzie had an ongoing rivalry as they competed for the top Saint at each race. At the CISAA Championships at TCS, the jr. cross-country team faced its toughest challenge of the season. The U14 boys were the last race of the day and had to navigate their way up the well-worn slope on their way to the finish line. After a well fought race, your Saints finished 5th overall! KR

The season consisted of several preliminary meets whereby the team had the opportunity to test their abilities. Each race proved to be more challenging than the previous. At the CISAA Finals in Port Hope, your Saints were determined to tackle the dreaded "Mt. Trinity" – a steep 100m climb at the end of the course. The weather cooperated with a perfect day for running, and allowed many team members to improve on their results from earlier in the season. The midget boys' team finished 3rd overall and narrowly missed qualifying as a team for the OFSAA Championship in Ottawa. Avery MacKenzie was the lone qualifier to OFSAA. NT

Metro Bowl

It was an Andrean love-fest at the Rogers Centre as hundreds of students, faculty, staff, Old Boys and parents came out en masse to cheer on their Saints. Despite the incredible show of spirit and the exceptional skill of our players on the field, the Saints were defeated 21-14 in overtime by the Donald A. Wilson Gators of Whitby. "Unfortunately, it wasn't our night, but every single member of our football program was honoured to represent all of you," said Head Coach Len Gurr, who acknowledged the impact the fan support had on the players. Gurr said the team enjoyed a remarkable season, calling them "champions and winners, and most importantly, Andreans."

Varsity Hockey

The 2011-12 1st Hockey Season was one to remember. Taking on all comers from the beginning of November until March break, this group of dedicated young men, made the school proud this season. As with any young team, we had our bumps in the road early, but this team showed character right from the beginning and never quit. Big wins against New England playoff teams and perennial powers Belmont Hill School & Dexter School proved we were the real deal and gave us confidence early in the season. A second place showing at the St. Sebastian's Tournament in Massachusetts before the Christmas break set-up an amazing second half of the season. After New Years, we started the year with a championship in Buffalo at the St. Francis Catholic School Tournament. Then at MacPherson we won our division and lost in OT to a stifling and persistent UCC. We rebounded to claim bronze on a great performance on Sunday morning.

From there we went on a tear and didn't lose another game in January. We clinched the MPHL Northeast Division crown in Quebec at the end of the month and climbed atop the CISAA Standings. UCC once again proved to be a pest and caught us on the last day of the regular season to claim the number one seed in the CISAA playoffs. At Ridley at the end of February, we won three straight games, 4-2 over St. Francis in the Quarters, 5-2 over Edge School of Calgary in the semis and then 3-1 over Lake Forest Academy in the Final to capture our 5th MPHL title in the last 8 years. The win was especially sweet for the returning players who bowed out at the hands of the same Lake Forest Team last season in very controversial fashion.

Following that triumph we returned home with the chance of a double crown in the CISAA finals against a familiar foe, Upper Canada. We traded wins in each other's arenas to set up the deciding third game. We jumped out to fast start and stretched our lead to 3-0 as we dominated the first period and all but two minutes in the second. As Yoga Berra once said, "it ain't over till it's over" and we unfortunately couldn't keep it from unraveling. The result, however, didn't define us and we remained a team and a family until the end. DM

Your JV Hockey team began the season coming off three championships in a row and this year we fell just short of making it a four in a row. While it would be easy to see this as a disappointment, and in some ways it is because it is everyone's goal to win a championship, the truth is that winning is hard and only one team in any league wins their last game of the season. With a 21 win and 8 loss record, plus a tournament victory, and lots of fun times, the season was certainly a success.

Here is a funny story from the season and a telling example of the kind of characters we had on the team this year.

This season we had a bitter rivalry with the JV team from Nichols school. When they traveled up to Aurora we had a very physical game with them. We fell behind by scores of 2-0, and 3-1 in the game. When Nichols would score, they would skate by our bench and yell Woohooo, woohoooo. Our boys were especially upset when #14 from Nichols raked our bench and touched gloves with our boys after scoring the 3-1 goal. Our boys didn't quit however and with a minute to go in a 3-2 game, we pulled our goalie and tied the game. Not content, however, with just a tie, we got the puck down the ice into the Nichols zone, our boys got on the forecheck quickly and Jake Kearley banged in the loose puck with a second to go to win the game for us. We truly snatched victory from the jaws of defeat. I was so excited that I spun to give Mr. Foote a handshake and when I looked back at the ice, I saw Jake Kearley celebrating his goal by skating as fast as he could down the ice, dropping to his pants with his laces straight out, and pretending to paddle his stick like he was paddling a kayak. Nichols would however have the last laugh this year as they went on to win the league championship. TB.

We were a motley crew of individuals. There were high points and low points this season. A positive has to be the consistently solid play of Captain Adam Sinclair and Alternate Captain Darren Iwai, along with their linemates Connor Cowl and Avery Mackenzie. 50 minute practices at Ray Twinney #2 made all of us very sad, indeed. In the end, we placed third overall in the league and lost to arch rival UCC in an excellent semi-final game. I was actually looking forward to this day in January, because I always like to mention our beloved Toronto Maple Leafs...and I'd thought I'd be sharing with you how the Leafs would do some damage in the playoffs - but it wasn't meant to be....and that's kind of the way our U14 season unfolded...

From the outside looking in, you would say that the U14 hockey team didn't have a very successful season. However, I would say the exact opposite is in fact true. Looking back, I was looking for some inspirational and catchy quotes/sayings to share with you and put the year in perspective. So I'm driving and I hear Nikki Minaj sing - "I came to win, to fight, to thrive..."

In the book of 'The Great Book of Inspiring Quotations', I found saying from Paul 'Bear' Bryant that said, "Winning isn't everything, but it beats anything that comes in second"....that didn't work...

So I thought back to something Johann Koss said to Macdonald House when he did a room inspection way back in 2004...Johann Koss, current CEO of Right to Play and also a three time Olympic Speed Skating Gold Medalist. He passed on a story that has since stuck in my mind since that meeting...at the time he was going through a difficult period in his racing - in fact - he lost every race that year to another athlete from the Netherlands by the name of Robert Ritsma (in fact, Robert just broke his WR in the 1500 meters)...meanwhile the Olympics are being held in his home country Norway and as the former world record holder he was under tremendous pressure to win...his coach, sensing his frustration, passed on a simple message, "You just have to be a bit better every day, in every practice...the rest will come". Sure enough, every day in practice, he got a bit better...gave him the confidence he needed and during the OLYMPICS he went out and skated to three new world records and three gold medals.

The coaching staff passed the same message to the U14 hockey team - get a bit better every day - we were after all, a very young team. Sure enough, we did get better.

This year was another very exciting year for the basketball program at St. Andrew's. It has been incredible to see the evolution of the program: Tons of fans in the bleachers to watch the teams play. Players competing at the highest levels provincially and nationally. Success at all age levels. Along with that success has come heightened expectations - three years ago, to have a dunk contest we had to come into Vuill and lower the baskets down to 8 feet. Now, Larry Filipopoulos throws down a one-handed baseline reverse dunk and the student crowd goes 'quiet clap... eh, ok'. You'd think you'd be more impressed, but then Grade 9 student Daniel Cummings struts over in his street clothes and proceeds to attempt a 360 without even warming up!

This was definitely the most talented team to take to the court for St. Andrew's in a long time, and as a result there were a lot of highlights to the 1st Basketball team's season: Captured Consolation Championship at the Notre Dame kick-off tournament, bronze medal at the Woodbridge College Invitational, and won the SAC Invitational. At the 1st ever Basketball Spirit Night event hosted by the Athletic Council, the team came out on fire and enjoyed a 49 - 10 halftime lead. At one point, the team was riding an 11 game win streak, all captured on fantastic highlight footage by manager Peter Grantcharov. The team is inching closer than ever to the goal of being the first team to represent SAC at OFSAA, and in a heart breaking loss fell only 2 points short of that goal. The returning players in our program should use this as motivation to continue improving, and something to strive to achieve next season.

Before naming our MIP and MVP, I'd like to take a moment to recognize the 4 players that will be graduating from our program. Please stand as your name is called: Dylan Hussey - in his first year with our team, Dylan's impressive leaping ability and great basketball IQ helped him make an immediate impact on the floor. Yannick Harou - the complete definition of a defensive stopper, Yannick's athleticism and heart are the reason he has been a key player for our team over the past two seasons. Jamal Kett - an extremely talented athlete, Jamal has been a key offensive player throughout the last two seasons and a fan favourite, often finishing on the break with a two handed slam or alley-oop dunk. Larry Filipopoulos - Larry has worked extremely hard to develop his game throughout his career and emerged this year as one of the top guards in the league. Thank you to all of the Seniors for their contributions to our program. SL

After a silver medal finish in division three competition last year, your 2012 JV Saints faced a considerable challenge as we started the season in the senior second division. With only three returning veterans, we were a young team that struggled and lost several close games to established varsity programs. However, we continued to significantly improve throughout the year, and our hard work was rewarded with wins in two of our last three games and a second place finish in the St. John Kilmarnock Invitational tournament. We were led offensively by the strong perimeter shooting of Ryan Neiman, Brett Tomlinson, and Sean Huang, while opposing ball-handlers were terrorized by the defensive pressure of Robert Trocchia and Arya Ashoori. We relied upon the offensive and defensive versatility of Jack Zhang, Mathew Durisin, and Matthew Cheung, and we dominated the paint and the boards with Ross Hinds, Peter Godber, Darien Arcsott, and Brandon Benoit. By the end of the season, this young man established himself as a smart, reliable point guard, and a deadly shooting guard with an ability to make clutch shots. MC

This season was busy with 4 tournaments, 10 league and playoff games, for a total of 26 games. We finished with an overall record of 18 wins and 8 losses. We won tournaments at Walkerton and Owen Sound. In league play we finished third. In the quarterfinal, we were deadlocked with Appleby at the half. Fortunately, we got our act together outscoring them 33-7 the rest of the way. Fraser Sopik, in particular, had a terrific game. Every loose ball seemed to have his name on it. Our semi-final was a hotly contested game against UCC who had drubbed us in two previous games. The task was formidable and unfortunately, it was not to be, as we lost 69-58. We started well, were up by 3 at the half, but with Aaron Sum sitting after losing a contact and foul issues UCC took charge of the game in the 3rd. Down by 14 going into the 4th quarter, the best we could do was close the gap to 8 before fouling intentionally. The loss hurt but going forward there are positives only one player, Garrett Arsenault has to move to the next level. Above all, despite being essentially an U-15 team, the skill level is very good. BP

This season was a most challenging U16B season. Because of last year's success, we moved up to a very competitive Tier II league. We quickly learned that we needed to bring up the level of our game if we wanted to be successful. With a majority of players with little or no previous basketball experience, we managed to be competitive in most of our games. A super thank you to Mr. Perrier for coming out and running some practices; your teaching was invaluable, monsieur Perrier. Next year, we will remain in Tier II but this time we will be a much more experienced and competitive team, mostly because we started to look better and better as the season progressed. It was fun coaching you, les boys!

U14 Basketball had another very successful season this year. We started the season on a very high note by beating the highly touted UCC team in a preseason tournament. That turned out to be the only loss that team would suffer all year. The only losses we suffered the rest of the season were against UCC and St. Mike's. There were two particular highlights of the season. 2 days before the semi-finals we went to the Air Canada Centre for a team practice at the Toronto Raptors facility. We met the Coach and all the players as they finished their own practice. We then took to the floor for a 75 minute high intensity practice conducted by assistant coach Eric Hughes. Practice was then followed by a team dinner at RealSports restaurant. 2 days later we met St. Mike's in the semis. We played our best game of the year and won a thriller by 1 point. We then went on to lose valiantly to UCC in the finals. I would like to thank and congratulate all our players this year. In the final four tournament they played their best basketball of the year and displayed the sort of effort that you would expect from a true Andean. I was very proud of them on that day.

When the tryouts began for the U12 basketball team, I had a typical number of 14 candidates. This would normally mean that I would be faced with the unfortunate task of cutting 2 or 3 players. But then Dalton showed up. His arrival after participating in the hockey tryouts put us up to 15. This meant there would now be 3 or 4 cuts, or I could entertain the possibility of keeping the large roster of 15 and working with 3 full practice squads. My decision was easy. Even though the group included a huge range of personalities and abilities, I had been so impressed with the maturity of the boys and the way they got along that I felt very comfortable keeping them all. We formed 3 practice squads, which I called the Mavericks, the Lakers, and the Celtics. I guess I was showing my age because the Celtic group came to me soon after and told me they wanted to relocate the franchise to Miami and were thereafter to be called the Heat.

After our winning season, we earned a place in the Elite 8 final tournament. Our first game was against Country Day School. It was another close contest, which we led for the majority of the game. Unfortunately, the ball stopped bouncing our way, and we were unable to score in the last few minutes; we ended up losing by one point which took us out of contention. Country Day went on to make it to the final game, which they narrowly lost to TFS. I'd like to congratulate all of the boys for absolutely making the best of our season. SL

Varsity Curling

Although curling at St. Andrew's College is a relatively new sport, we have certainly made a name for ourselves over the last few years. This season was no exception. In February, your 2011-12 Curling Saints proudly earned medals at the CISAA Championship. In an extra-end game against the Toronto French School, the Open Division team of Brandon Coverdale (skip), Dong-Geun Cho, Thomas Sinclair, Angus Lee and Joel Lat won the first-ever CISAA Open Division Curling championship for St. Andrew's College. Well done, boys! After losing a quarter-final match to Pickering College, our Boys Division team played Pickering again in the championship game. Trailing after four ends, our team kept their composure and battled back to tie the game 7-7 in the second-last end. Unfortunately, Pickering earned the deciding point. With well-earned CISAA silver medals—and as the highest ranking team declaring OFSAA eligibility—Michael, Aaron, Alex and Jordan were joined by Open-skip Brandon with his much-appreciated club experience for a March Break trip to the OFSAA championships in the Niagara region. We knew the competition was going to be tough, but we didn't know how tough! To put our experience into context, some of the teams that we played against in Boys Division Pool A competed together in adult men's leagues and never practiced as a high school team. In fact, two of our four OFSAA competitors ended up winning the provincial gold and silver medals! After our final match the group gathered for ice cream and celebrated reaching our team goal of finishing with more ends than in any earlier game. DJ

Like every year, The Alpine ski team began its training in late October hoping that we would see sufficient snow so we could begin on-hill training before the Christmas break. This year it was not to be, however, which unfortunately limited out time to prepare for our very hectic 5 race season through January and February. While out team lacked experience, they more than made it up with enthusiasm. As such Mr. Day, Ms. Elliott and I were very confident that all of our racers would quickly improve and become competitive in a very talented league once we hit the hills in early January. Without question, this final race was the best of the year for our Varsity Level 1 Squad. Unfortunately, however, they were only narrowly edged out by a strong team from Lakefield who went on to not only win the CISAA championship but place 4th in the province at OFSAA. Based on this result and those from previous races, the team was able to move up in the standings and capture the bronze team medal for the season; a truly remarkable achievement considering that the team stood 6th after the first 2 races. With so many talented and young racers, I am confident that we have the nucleus of what will prove to be a championship team in the next few years. JI ND, WE

The Nordic ski team faced a very significant challenge this season... – we didn't have any snow. However, that didn't stop 27 Andreans from putting their best effort and I can truly say that this was one of the most successful and entertaining Nordic ski seasons in recent history. This year, we attended four High School invitational races in order to prepare for our own CISAA League Championships in late February. With 15 of the 27 members new to the sport, our first priority was to focus on the technical development of the team. As the team trained daily to the Moryto beats during dryland and on skis at Hardwood Hills Nordic Centre, we could see both the technical abilities and our fitness levels jump significantly. By the fourth invitational race we were seeing top ten finishes in both the novice, junior and the senior levels. In fact, at the Kawartha Lakes Invitational, for the first time ever, our Junior team took a first place in an open high school invitational. race. Months of training came together at the CISAA finals in Haliburton. In the Junior Boys results, Andrew Ladouceur won first place and Logan Ward was right behind in second. Inigo de Abiega followed in 6th place, with Jack Bahen in 7th and Ben Harrison in 9th place. The team came away with the Gold Medal overall as the top Jr Boys Team. Well Done. BM AK

In preparation of each swimming season, the coaches look back at the previous results and design a plan to have each athlete reach their potential. Our early planning was inspired back in September when the Baseball movie Moneyball "hit", the theatres. (no pun intended). The film was about the Oakland A's general manager, Billy Beane, who needed to re-evaluate the strategies that produce wins on the field. Mr. Walden and I were determined to create the perfect strategy for wins in the pool. We had no problem training the team to reach their potential and knew that with the depth of talent on the team, that winning CISAA was also in our reach. Last year we had come 2nd at CISAA and could not let that happen again. Strategically selecting events would be tough as each school was limited to a total of 3 events per swimmer and could only have 1 relay team entered in each event. Our boys were the team to beat. The question was, "did the swimmers on the relay want gold for their relay or did they want gold for the team"? Our top point scorers would need to sacrifice the relay gold medals, and spread out in their top events to maximize the points. Our Saints needed to work together as a team and sacrifice one-for all. Not only did they qualify for OFSAA but they also won the gold medal...twice... in both the 200 Medley Relay and the 4x50 Freestyle relay.

The Moneyball combination of Ms. Tackaberry's mathematical mind, the coaches' training plan and the athletes' fierce racing, our U16 boys placed 3rd and our first team won CISAA by a total of 13 points. At OFSAA we had 14 qualifiers and out of 87 Sr. boys' teams our senior men finished 3rd overall and our team of just 5 U16 boys placed 6th out of 86 Jr Boys' teams. Well done, gentlemen. CM, JW

Yet again we are celebrating another incredibly successful squash season. For the sixth year in a row, U16 and Varsity Squash have won their CISAA championships. This year we graduate 4 from our top 9 and 8 from the top 19 squash players in the school. This is the largest number of graduates we have had in a long time. I would like to acknowledge Zach Seto, SeungJin An, Mark Choi, Sean Smith, Kyle Barber, Christian Tam, and Haitan Yu, who have been keen players in our program ever since their middle school days. You will all be missed, especially on Tuesday evenings for Intramural Squash. Led by our two captains, Zach Seto and SeungJin An, we went into the CISAA Championships with everyone at the top of their game. What is again noteworthy about our success is the depth of our team. While other teams had a few strong players at a few ranks, we had the strongest players in most of the positions, and our top guys placed in the top 2 or 3. In the final tally, we won 102 of a possible 108 games. UCC was 14 points behind in second place. SR

The U14 squash team this year was a true pleasure to coach. With only two returning players from last year's squad, the team consisted of mostly rookies who were learning the game. Two weeks into our season, we hosted the Early Bird Tournament and it was very clear that there was a lot of talent on this young team. With only five teams in the league, the players quickly learned what to expect from their opponents and never looked back, winning the majority of their matches throughout the season. Two trips to Appleby College proved to be the biggest challenge for these guys, as the courts are a different size than ours, and they could not adjust their game accordingly. The boys proudly represented St. Andrew's at every meet. On a number of occasions, the opposing coaches approached us in praise of the humility and the camaraderie shown by the St. Andrew's squad, and for this, the boys should be very proud of themselves. NM

Varsity Fencing

Fencing is a sport based on 17th century duelling. It is an individual combat sport, which requires self-reliance, courage, valour, and honour. A fencer is a warrior, fearless, tactical, disciplined and determined to win. As Plato said "For a man to conquer himself is the first and noblest of all victories." This year the fencing team had 20 members, 7 returning and 13 new members. We faced our rivals UCC, initially beating them in the preliminary rounds and we faced them again in the finals however they got the better of us this time. We won the silver medal and look forward to the rematch next season. Overall our team produced 1 Gold, and 2 Silver team medals. SY

CAIS CHAMPIONS

What a great season. We went undefeated through the CAIS National Tournament and the regular season right up to our last game against Appleby. Playing without our two starting centres they handled us pretty easily, but were simply not prepared for us in the CISAA Finals. Without a doubt one of the greatest sporting moments in the school's history, the Finals were an epic struggle between two very good teams. Your Saints scored just minutes into the match as a result of great defensive pressure and then defended the 5-0 lead for 65 minutes. Three times Appleby got the ball across our goal line, but each time had it stripped or were hit so hard they knocked-on. With time expiring Yannick Harou intercepted another pass and ran it in for the 12-0 CISAA Championship. We then headed to OFSAA seeded 3rd in the province but were upset by the 6th place seed who went on the finals. Without a doubt this is one of the best rugby teams St. Andrew's has ever produced. JB & GS

The u16 rugby squad of 25 players faced an uphill battle this year. They were keen but relatively inexperienced. We were fortunate to have an influx of seven Mexican players, although none of them had any experience.

The strength of the team was in the forwards with captain Michael Mardini, supported by returning players Edward Essue, Callum Green and Alex Auger.

In the backs there was much less experience, so we were challenged to score many points. Juan Sucunza was a threat to kick penalties from anywhere inside 50 metres, but the keys to our success were playing a driving forwards game and strong defence.

The season started well with a victory over UCC. However, we played poorly against a surprisingly effective Royal St. George's team. The next three games were played in the ten days after the Cadet Inspection and they would determine who reached the playoffs. Up next was Crescent, who proved to be the most polished team in the league, and we could not contain them. So we needed to win one of the two games remaining, and we didn't want to leave it to the end, so the game against St. Mike's was huge. Although we conceded over 60% of possession, an outstanding defensive effort was enough for us to win.

In the playoffs we were pitted against Crescent, and we could not slow down the pace of the game and were not a match for their backs who identified and used space very well. Two forward drives, lead by Edward Essue created well-deserved tries for Callum Green and Antonio Escalante. Crescent went on to defeat Royal St. George's convincingly to win gold. SS & JJ

Coaching the U14 rugby team is my favourite time of year because I get to work with amazing coaches and I get to see middle school students, who know almost nothing about rugby, transform into dominant players in only six weeks. We had five grade 6's this year, who were small but didn't let that stop them from making big tackles. We also had five grade 7's, who will be the core of next year's team. Cooper has been a standout player for two years and I know he will be a great leader next year. And we had a group of grade 8's, most of whom had never played rugby before. The only way to teach a group of 15 boys a contact sport in less than two months is if they are coachable, smart, athletic, and work very hard. I couldn't have asked for a better group of guys. This year, for the 8th straight year, we went to the championship game. We played our best game of the year, and it was a back and forth game with Hillfield. We were equally matched, and so we knew the game would come down to lucky bounces, and unfortunately those bounces were not in our favour that day. We finished the season in second place. I am incredibly proud of every member of the team for always showing respect to their opponents and the referee, for always trying their best, and for playing as a team. DR

The brand new facilities have made a huge difference. Last year we did not have anywhere to train, this year we have first class facility. And the building of the facility has made a great impression on the team. Last year they finished last in the CISAA, and this year they placed second. Meanwhile, the Midget team won their division. The last time this was accomplished by a midget team was 1996. We are hoping that this young group of men will lead the team for the next three years so that we can eventually bring the overall CISAA team title back to the school.

With this new facility we also experienced new problems such as POLE VAULTERS. Now Pole Vaulters are a very special breed of track and field athlete, they need a lot of attention. First, they need long poles to get the job done. Secondly they need a vehicle long enough to get their poles to the event. But aside from their special needs Mr. Galajda took the beginner Pole Vaulters and turned them into CISAA medalists and OFSAA Qualifiers.

In the sprint, hurdle and jump events Mr. Trevisan found it much easier to keep his athletes in line, now that we have lanes. Our sprinters ran faster and the jumpers jumped farther than they had before.

With the throwing events, our biggest concern was making sure that the middle school rugby players were far enough away on the slanted field so that we did not kill any of them. Javelins hurt you know.

The distance runners are the group of guys that do their best to not get too excited. They know they have a long way to go so there is no need to waste your energy on activities like wheeling at track meets.

This year's Junior Track and Field Team began on the Mac House Quad scrambling for simple equipment scattered on the road and grass, we then migrated up to our multi-million dollar new facility, and concluded at Provincial meets hosted at CDS and York University with hundreds in attendance.

The Junior Track and Field Team has never been bigger with over forty participants, all with a wide variety of skill levels and talents. In the end, all committed participants made huge strides in getting in shape and become far more proficient in many of the events we practiced every day. We look at this year as a first step to a more competitive and committed Track and Field team for the Middle School.

Today we celebrate the successes of this season, say good-bye to our graduating players, and look optimistically towards next year. This year, with the return of Seung Jin An, and last years' medal winners from both the Varsity and U16 teams, it looked like this season was ours to lose. What was required was dedication, discipline, focus, and complete commitment. Regrettably, the demands of the third term and some tough personal choices resulted in a final season result not truly reflective of the skill this team collectively possesses. In a field of 15 teams, defaulting 1 of 5 positions, we finished 4th in the CISAA finals. Thankfully, team and individual play is rewarded. JeongMin Seo and Mark Choi have been playing as our #1 doubles team for 2 years. JeongMin and SeungJin won silver as the #2 doubles team in 2010. JeongMin and Mark won silver in 2011 and this year put their stamp on the league by beating UCC (who they had lost to earlier in the year) to win the gold medals. This on the heels of their OFSAA mens 'C' bronze medals.

Some on faculty will remember the excitement, promise, and inspiration that Sammy Lam brought to the badminton program a few years ago. Sammy went on to win many CISAA and OFSAA gold medals. He won 5 OFSAA mens 'A' gold medals for singles and doubles play. Well the 'buzz' this year (from very early on) was that a new student in grade 9 had joined the school who was an up and coming club player. There is no doubt that the addition of Andre Chan to our program has raised the level of play for not only the Varsity team, but also the U16 and U14 players. As a coach, my appreciation and understanding of technical and strategic aspects to the game improved. At the CISAA Championship - like many racquet championships - there is a 'must see' match. This year it was the match Andre Chan and the OFSAA Mens 'A' silver medalist (from DeLaSalle College) Bryan Joki. Andre put on a spectacular show forcing a 3 game match. The most exciting match, however was the silver medal match against Edric Leung of UCC. Andre had lost twice to this veteran player in regular season play, but topped the day by winning an exciting 3 game finale and securing the silver medal!

They would later go on to dominate at the CISAA finals so we weren't the only ones to find them a challenge. When the dust settled we came home with two bronze finished by Billy Wu and Second Singles and Field Tian at Third Singles. Both matches went three rounds and were a pleasure to watch. And one silver medal win by First Double players Jason Zhang and Edric Wong.

With only 2 returning players from last season, it seemed as though this would be a rebuilding year for the U14 badminton team! This year's U14 Badminton team faced the tough challenge of competing against power house teams from Royal St. George and UCC. With hopes of 5 returning players next season, the team is looking to finally clinch an overall first place finish. MD

This has been by far this is the most talented team we've had thus far. This year we continued on last year's successes and built upon them. This year, I saw improvement from every single player who returned as well as some new talent becoming a part of the team. We had an absolutely stellar season this year, highlighted by a pair of 5-0 shutouts. Our season capped off with an outstanding overall finish of 2nd place in the CISAA championships, finally breaking Crescent and UCC's seven year duopoly on the top two spots. Four of our five lines finished second individually, each losing four closely contested first-place matches all to very strong UCC players. This finish was the best finish we've had since the Saints won the CISAA championship in the 1970's, over 30 years ago.

This was another successful year for the Senior Golf Team. At the end of September, we competed in the qualifier for OFSAA, finishing in third place as a team with Nick Crozier being invited to represent CISSA as an individual player at the provincial event held in Belleville. This spring we played in our four tournament season which is composed of twelve senior golf teams. Our poorest finish was third place and our best performance was first place. Finishing in second place overall qualified us to advance to the championship tournament held at Woodington Lakes. At the championship tournament while we did not have a best round of golf we were surprised by the strong performances put in by St. Michael's College and UCC who came out of the pack to place 1st and 2nd respectfully. We finished the championship tournament in fourth place. We are losing four players this year and I would like to take the opportunity to thank Nick Crozier, Brennan Leslie, Jake Sterio, and Sean Lee for their ongoing commitment to the team and the program. Nick, throughout the season, was Mr. Consistency, and Brennan and Jake were major contributors to our first place finish at St. Andrew's Valley. The MIP is Marc Gallo. Marc has improved his game as a junior player and made a significant contribution to the senior team averaging 79 over the course of the season, the second best average on the team. The MVP again for the third year is Nick Crozier. Nick shot the lowest or second lowest round at each of our tournaments and was arguably the best individual golfer in our league this year. Overall in the season his average score was 73.4. Nick is off to Cincinnati, Ohio to play golf at Xavier University. One further note: Nick Crozier and Marc Gallo have qualified to play at the Ontario Men's Amateur Championship to be held later this summer and Matt Durisin has been invited to play in a secondary qualifier which, if successful, will allow him to participate in this championship as well. RG

Junior Golf

Newcomers Joseph Manchia, David Pierson, Liam Smith, Braeden Glendinning, Ben Harrison, and our youngest gun, Michael von Schalburg joined lone returnee Matt Yustin on this year's Junior Golf team.

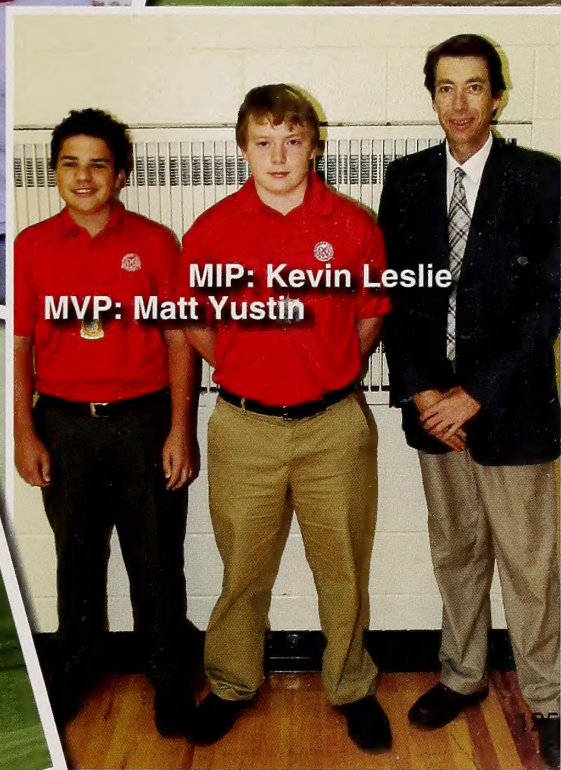

Our rookies gained valuable tournament experience in week one, learning a great deal about the finer points of the tournament play. In the first event at Peninsula Lakes Golf Club, we learned that if we hit the ball right, it's called a slice. If we hit it left, it's a hook. If we hit it straight, it's a miracle.

Week two saw a six-stroke improvement in our team score with a stroke average of 88.25 at Station Creek. The boys continued to gain momentum; looking great and having their best play in week three until an electrical storm forced everyone off the course with just a few holes left to play. Since the field had not all played the same number of holes, the entire day's results were thrown out.

Things were looking grim in week four as we were down to three men due to a variety of ailments and school trips. Nevertheless, we managed to earn a spot in the top eight and were invited to the finals. The boys fared well on the beautiful but extremely challenging Woodington Lake course in Tottenham, finishing seventh in this year's exceptionally strong field. DF

Our season began with a trip to Pennsylvania and New Jersey and we started strong with two wins. We saw Cornell play at UPENN and toured the UPENN athletic facilities. We also saw Hofstra play at Drexel where the boys met up with Pat Root ('11) and Drexel's captain and top offensive midfielder, Kyle Bergman ('07). We followed up with trips to Columbus (OH) and Detroit (MI) where we saw Ohio State play Michigan in "The Big House". Over the course of 30 games the boys put together a fantastic season, finishing 21-9 with 279 goals for and 177 against. We won the SAC Early Bird Tournament and were second in our annual 8 team tournament. The team earned silver in CISAA, narrowly losing to St. Mike's 7-5 in the final and went on to capture bronze at OFSAA. This team developed, competed, and achieved at a higher level that I expected of them back in January. They put forth an outstanding effort and played with passion. With nineteen grade 11's, there is no need to worry heading into next season! Congratulations and thank you to graduating seniors and Captains Jamal Kett who could play NCAA lacrosse but will go to Simon Fraser to play NCAA football next year; James Lappin, who could play university lacrosse but plans to play semi-pro hockey in Spain; and, Brennan de Langley who will play lacrosse at the University of Western Ontario next year.

This year's MIP was a very difficult choice with a three way race between Connor Rowntree, Jono McConnell and Ryan Shotbolt. This player went from being the sixth defender last year to an outstanding long stick who has caught "the bug" and now aspires to play college lacrosse in 2013-14. Congratulations to MIP Jono McConnell.

The MVP should have been a tough decision with three very strong Senior Captains who are all keys to our success, along with C.J Sifton who notched 71 goals for the good guys! In the end however, the choice was clear. He is widely regarded as the best goaltender in Ontario and he even scored the overtime winner in a game in Peterborough. At some point down the road when he is done playing lacrosse, he's going to make an even better coach than he is a goaltender. He is perhaps the only player I've ever coached who hates to lose more than me! The 1st Lacrosse MVP is Nick Fournier. GR

U14 Lacrosse

To begin on a high note, the Saints U 14 lacrosse team defeated UCC in both our home and away games. Neither game was ever in question as the boys played with confidence and something more than a little moxy. Unfortunately, two earlier games quite early in the season against KCS left us scattered and confused as we were improperly prepared due to a number of factors. Having only a small handful of practices under our belt and only 8 returning players, we suffered two losses that placed us in the unenviable position of 4th place in league play and having to play a very strong and powerful SMC for a playoff spot in the finals. It was a massacre.

But one of the most positive aspects of this year's team was that 8 of our 20 players were involved in the Newmarket Redbird Field Rep Lacrosse Program and 4 others are currently playing box lacrosse. This bodes very well for the future of Lacrosse at SAC. On the flipside of that positive note, 3 of those rep players are graduating and will be sorely missed - John Buchanan's prowess as a fast draw faceoff player and powerful shot; Jack Turner's leadership and ball control as a long pole; and Drake Porter's amazing goaltending skills will all be a tremendous help at our first team level. I encourage our other returning young players to think about joining the Redbird Program and honing their field skills. I understand the coaching at that level is outstanding.

We also graduate veterans Jamie Finlay, Will Ashton, and Cole Chapman and newcomers Kyle Hunter, Aiden Link, Gavin Fox, Sachit Dhiman, Tyler Sifton, and Julian Smith-Voudouris. With more than half the team moving up we will certainly be looking for some new raw talent from the grade 6, 7 and 8's next year.

Wow, what a season! Mr. Walden and I are so proud of this young team. Winning all of our regular season games, except of course against the large men from St. Mike's. The boys were confident that we would secure the silver medal as we had last year. Unfortunately, our championship day did not go as planned, and we came away with a 4th place finish. We would like to blame it on the tuna sandwiches that were sent for lunch, but realistically we did not play our best that day. Disappointing for sure, but we walked away proud of our season and already looking forward to next year.

This team was made up of some remarkable boys. Not only were these boys great athletes, but they also demonstrate incredible character. The coaches were both extremely impressed with every boy on the team. Winning or losing, this team was supportive of each other and the opposing teams. Our co-captains, Jerod Forte and Nikhil Nath, led the team and demonstrated good sportsmanship. They both supported the coaches by helping with warm-ups and practices and certainly were important assets during the games. Our returning grade 7s improved their skills from last year and we will have a difficult choice in choosing new captains for next season. We were also very thrilled with our new grade 6 players who faced much larger opponents and made valuable contributions to the team.

The SAC U14 Softball team continues to intimidate with the nicest uniforms and our strong record. Each year the team improves. Next year we will no longer have Mr. Walden as our awesome coach. He has helped develop this team from the start and has built this program into what it is today. Over the years he has learnt to be more patient and accepting of these young boys and we will certainly miss his calm and positive demeanor. Hopefully he will come south to see some of our games next year. The boys have asked me to thank him for everything that he has done for them over the years.

Compared to last year, this baseball season was a roaring success. With our brand spanking new diamond, we were really hoping for good weather! Some sports in high schools have different levels, Varsity/JV, or First/ U16, Sr/Jr., etc. Baseball is one of the few teams where all boys from Gr. 9 to 12 compete on one team. After tryouts this year, Mr. Gurr and I picked the team and realized that we had 5 grade 9s make the squad. And while this is a tremendous accomplishment for those guys, when 1/3 of the team are grade 9s, it can mean that your team will be overmatched by older, bigger, stronger opponents. Fortunately for us, our 9s were so cocky/confident, that when they took to the field, they thought they were in grade 12. A case in point would be in our Championship game vs Trinity College. We fell behind 9-0 after the first inning, battled all the way back to take a 10-9 lead in the 5th, fell behind 12-10 in the 6th and then put a couple runners on board. We then heard a funny sound coming from their bullpen. It sounded like the loudest SLAP you've ever heard. When we brought the tying run to the plate, they brought in Cal Quantrill (son of Major Leaguer Paul). Cal throws a legitimate 91 MPH. Standing in the box against 91, and Mr. Gurr will tell you, it is tough to see the ball. When one of our 9s, Graydon Gardner, stepped into the box against him, he almost got hit in the head. He went down, refused to dust himself off, and then fouled the next one off. That in itself is a major accomplishment. He then struck out but the important this is he went down swinging. Another grade 9, Will Merkel was the only Saint to get a hit off Quantrill when ripped a single to the outfield. It was fun to watch. Eventually, the boys took their 7-3 record into the playoff to face our old nemesis, St. Mike's. St. Mike's returned 19/20 guys back from the year before and as Matt Carter would say, they were legit. With an overwhelmingly grade 12 squad, they overpowered us in the league semi-final. Mr. Gurr and I said during that game that watching SMC was like watching what we will become next year, and with some many good young players, for many years to come.

I was very pleased with how our team shaped up at the beginning of the season. We had an excellent group of returning athletes, but we also welcomed ten new guys to the team with no triathlon experience. Now, I wasn't quite sure what to expect from these boys, considering their previous sporting experience wasn't really applicable to endurance training. Among these burgeoning triathletes, we had an alpine skier, 4 guys from first hockey, our school's best squash player, and a mui-tai boxer. After a great season, I want to give a special farewell to our graduates, Zack Seto, Greg Antono, Austin Almadi, Spencer Feeley, and Jonathan Cannon. I wish you guys well as you continue to race at university. KR & CM

What a season: great fun but way too short! Despite much better weather than last year, we still ended up playing 3 of 4 league games in our final week. More exhibition matches helped our many novices. After two championship seasons in a row, we knew this would be a rebuilding year. Of our players, well over half of our boys had never played a single game, and only 4 of our starting 11 knew the difference between a stump and a bail. Our league record was 1 win, 3 losses, but we were in every game right up until the end: no blowouts, no quitters, and no poor losers! Thanks and best wishes to our grade 12 grads: JunYoung Lee, Toby Lym, Christian Geddes-Morrison; to my co-coach Mr. Gomes for his many years of expert service to the school; and to retiring AD and sport convenor, Mr. Reid, for his support of the program. DK

House: Smith Years at SAC: 2009-2012 Sports/Teams: U16B soccer MIP, 1st Cricket, Squash and table tennis

Clubs: Reach for the Top, SLG leader, Academic Council Cadet rank: Lieutenant Aspirations: internist/gastroenterologist living in India Probable fate: working at a Wal-Mart in Canada

I remember sharing fond experiences with my small group of friends in my spares before physics and English in my final year and in the dining hall as well. In fact most of them were fortunately in all of my classes so school started to become something I looked to forward to. I will also never forget the impact that being a cadet leader has had on me. It has given my confidence a great boost to know that I can be in charge of several people and not make a mistake. I will also remember the peer tutoring sessions in Flavell library where I got to help my peers as well as have fun with them. I would like to sincerely thank St. Andrew's College for making a much more mature and well rounded man out of me than when I first arrived here.

Pranav AGARWAL

My time at SAC has been a short, but moving experience in developing my character. My experience at SAC started in grade ten. I believe SAC has changed me from the person I was at that time, first walking through the gates and down to the lower fields. The experiences of participating in the swimming team, Outreach Council, MacDonald House leadership, and several others, I believe such insightful moments will last in my memories forever. Furthermore, with friends sharing a sense of brotherhood and companionship, I feel that SAC has prepared me perfectly for events waiting to happen in the future. At all times, I will be proud to be an Andean.

Nicknames: Akbar

Activities and Accomplishments: 1st Cross Country, 1st Track and Field, 1st Cricket, Middle School House Captain.

I would first like to thank my mother, without whom I wouldn't be here or anywhere close. She has dedicated her life so that mine can grow, and for that, I am forever grateful. I must also take this time to thank my father. Without your support I would never have been able to acquire the SAC experience. To all of my family – Mom, Dad, Haider, Mohammed – an endless thank you's. Thank you to all the people who made this very long road not so long. To all my friends, thank you for being just that, and I wish you well for the future.

I think about the last 4 years at St Andrew's, a time period that sounds a lot longer than it feels. Remarkably thoughts of what to write do not come easily. As my time at SAC draws closer to the end I am bombarded with a plethora of emotions that are unfamiliar to me. The education I received, which seemed to be the whole point of attending SAC, appears to be the least significant thing that I take away with me as I depart this great school. Make no mistake, academically I have grown, as a matter of fact I can hold my own against some pretty intellectual people.

St Andrew's helped me discover the man I am, the man I can become. It helped develop bonds and relationships with many of my fellow Andeans, I developed a strong admiration for several of my teachers, who selflessly guided me with the thoughtfulness of a true friend. I learned a lot about myself, my feelings, my ability to adapt and the need to stand up for what I believe in, even when I was the only one standing. I learned not to be afraid of who I am, to embrace my thoughts and feelings without reservation. I learned to be a true Andean, an Andean for life.

Austin ALMADI

Activity: Prefect, Varsity Squash, Varsity Badminton, Wind Ensemble, Student Led Group, Community Service Council, Chamber Ensemble, SACKA, Math Club, Go Club

I can't believe my five years at St. Andrew's have passed so quickly. So many things have happened at this place, but they will never be forgotten. Although it is extremely difficult to capture all the feelings I experienced and write them down, some of them would be from being unequivocally excited on the first orientation day, feeling anxious talking to people from different countries, being ecstatic at winning my first championship on the U14 Soccer Team, feeling abysmal frustration from failing my first English quiz, and relishing the state of complete focus from playing the flute solo in Carol Service. Despite the ups and downs, as I reminisce about my life at school, it has been undoubtedly incredible. SAC has given me unforgettable memories (both good and bad), lifelong friends and teachers, diverse learning experiences, and opportunities for everything. I would like to reveal my sincere appreciation to all who have supported me, including my parents.

First of all I would like to thank all of you; my parents, my housemasters, my teachers, and my peers, for giving me this incredible opportunity and all the support that have made my time here much easier. Before arriving at St. Andrew's College, I didn't know what to expect. I was scared, quite frankly. As I am now looking back at my time here, I am really happy that I made the move across the Atlantic Ocean. The move has let me develop and expand as a person, and it has truly prepared me for the future. To the rest of the class of 2012; good luck in the future, I wish you all the best.

Thank You

Accomplishments: played "Paul" in "A Chorus Line" (2010) and "Moritz" in "Spring Awakening" (2011), Focus Festival: "Glee" and "Freaks & Geeks" (2011); "Glee 2" (2012); Editorial team for The Thistle; Mac House Captain, Pangaea Young Explorers Programme Ambassador. Coming from Singapore, I didn't know what to expect from my education here. I wanted to try new activities and pursue my passions. SAC allowed me to do just that. I'm immensely grateful for all the opportunities SAC has given me. I will never forget my first time Nordic skiing: I was cold, helpless and immobile as everyone else skied away. I never thought that I'd be good enough to race, but I did. The same applies to Triathlon. I feel blessed to have had the most dedicated and encouraging coaches and great company in all three sports teams. Thanks to Mr Scoular, for giving me the chance to combine my passions for singing and acting in the fall productions, and play characters outside my ethnicity. My favourite memories at SAC would be playing Paul in "A Chorus Line" and Moritz in "Spring Awakening". Boarding life had its ups and downs, but it has definitely made me tougher. To my roommate for my whole SAC career, Bchan, remember that 5 alarm clocks are never enough, and "yo man, you need to get it together, bro!" To my other Flavellian brothers, it has been a pleasure. Thanks for the memories, Andreans.

Gregory ANTONO

I have truly enjoyed the seven years I attended St. Andrew's College. I have been in Smith House for all of Upper School and have been a member U16 Tennis, U16 Squash and Varsity Squash. I have been able to do so many interesting things because of this school. These include traveling around the world with groups like the Pipes & Drums and SASSAW, and having the opportunity to represent my school through both sports teams such as tennis and squash, and other competitions like RoboCup Jr and ECOO. On top of that, I have been able to experience the remarkable community St. Andrew's College has to offer. I know people here who have been my friends since I first came to St. Andrew's and I am sure will continue to be for many years to come. St. Andrew's is really an amazing place and I have had many unique experiences here that I could never have gotten anywhere else and made many great friends.

Kyle BARBER

It seems difficult to believe that my time at SAC is over. Starting in Gr. 7 it seemed like it would never end. But alas all good things come to an end. Thanks guys for a phenomenal time, I wish most of you the best of luck in future endeavors.

Aspirations: Entrepreneur, Economist, Professional Tennis Player/Coach

Probable Fate: Hell if I know!

These times at SAC have certainly been a wild ride! When I started in grade 9 I didn't think I'd have such a great life experience. When I first came to St. Andrew's I'd never been in a place so emphasized with tradition. I hadn't even been to a school a third the size of St. Andrew's before going here; being in a place so big and full of people was a bit overwhelming at first. However, as I grew over the years and gradually matured, I grew closer to the people I met here and the memories I share with them will stay with me for the rest of my life. I cannot possibly thank everyone involved in my time at SAC enough, and I wish everybody in the class of '12 well

Favourite Memory at SAC: My favourite memories of SAC were being head of house in Sifton House, being the Lieutenant for Sifton Company, being a Macdonald House Captain, playing for JV soccer for 2 years and just being a part of such a wonderful institution. I truly hope that I will remember all the things that I have taken part in at SAC and that have helped me become who I am today.

My time at SAC has been the best of my life so far. The 4 years I have lived here have been full of joy, friendship and fun. St. Andrew's College has given me very much, it has disciplined me, taught me how to properly learn, how to play sports, but most of all, St. Andrew's College has given me lifelong friends. The 4 years have flown by, but I hope that I will remember all the great experiences I have gathered from being a student here.

St. Andrew's has provided a stable learning environment for me during the past seven years. I have experienced countless memorable events such as: the Battlefields Tour, Brazil, 2011 CAIS Rugby championship, 2011 varsity football championship (beating UCC), and being a Prefect. These unbelievable years have shaped me as a person. The friends I've made at SAC will last a lifetime. I hope that I have chosen a University that will continue my development as a man. I would like to thank my parents for making the past seven years possible.

I never realised how difficult it would be to write these final remarks about my St. Andrew's career. As cliché as it is, my time at St. Andrew's has been filled with experiences that have helped to shape me into who I am today. From new boy orientation day in grade 6, to this very moment, sitting in the gallery on spare in my final year, it has been quite the unforgettable ride. I would like to thank my parents for giving me the wonderful opportunity to attend this incredible institution. If it weren't for their patience and sacrifice, I would never have been given the opportunity to play football, curl, travel to France, Belgium, Holland, and England, or most importantly, play the bagpipes, and lead the St. Andrew's College Pipes and Drums as the Pipe Major. My thanks go out to all of the teachers and staff members of St. Andrew's College who make this school the great place that it is. These Fujitsus are craptastic. I wish all of my graduating peers the best of luck in all future endeavours, and safe travels.
 . Peace and Love.

 If I were to summarize my last three years of high school in one word, it would be growth. Even though I was a student here since grade six, it was really in high school where I began to develop as a person. Of course, this could not have been done without the tireless and unceasing support of my peers, teachers, coaches, family and mentors.
 My desire is to become a better person, and to bring joy to those around me. Every day is a new challenge, some more than others. I am by no means a perfect individual, but I am constantly trying to better myself. Who I am, is the product of the efforts of those around me, and for this effort, I am forever grateful.  After 6 years, it's hard to believe that my time at SAC is finally over. Looking back at the friends I've made and experiences I've had, both good and bad, I would not have changed a single thing, for everyone has made me the person I am today. I consider myself truly privileged to have taken part in the many extraordinary opportunities that SAC provided me. Whether it be the SASSAW trip to Brazil or simply playing JV puck with the boys, every day was something to be thankful for. I wish everyone the best in the future!

Comments: St. Andrew's was a place where I could do anything I like. It was a place where no one judged and somewhere you could feel comfortable in. I met many friends along the way and met great coaches and teachers who I look up to. I knew the whole grade and all of us were like brothers. No one was a stranger in my school. I have lots of memories, and I just can't believe it's all over. I have lots of regrets too, as I should have participated in school life more than I did. I will never forget this place. St. Andrew's College was the better part of my story, my life. This journey had many highs and lows, many bumps in the road but I made it, and I'm proud to call myself an Andrean, and a graduate of St. Andrew's College.

My memory of my first day at SAC remains vivid in my mind today. It doesn't seem long ago. I was a new boy that had no idea how to get involved in the life of the school. Many students can't wait to finish at their high school and get on to university. I am not the exception, as I look forward to this new stage of my life. SAC has provided me with a meaningful experience and it has been a good learning journey. The days I spent here changed me in ways I can't describe. Whether it was the sports or the academics, I was inspired to excel. Mrs. McCue was my swimming coach and always pushed me to work hard in practice, but she also watched out for me outside of the team, making sure I was keeping up academically and socially. Mr. Paluch and the people in the university counseling office also spent countless hours with me to help me find out the best path for me here after SAC. I've seen many positive changes to the school and I know that in the future I'll continue to get stronger and the kids will benefit even more. I've become the well-rounded citizen here at this school and I will represent SAC wherever I go in the best light.

Comment: My three years at SAC have, overall, been great. The memories and friends that I have made will be with me until I get Alzheimer and forget everything. I hope that if you read this, it is because I made some impression on you. I hope that I have been able to give back to this community what it gave to me as a new boy: the strong sense of brotherhood and camaraderie. As my time here grows short, I think back to some of the memories that I've made: swapping stories every night in the Sifton kitchen, being a Mac House Captain, house BBQs, Nordic overnights, weekends, stress breakdowns, becoming head of house, and that feeling when the year is finally done. I want to say thanks to my parents for their support over these three years. I also want to say thanks to all my teachers not only from grade twelve but from past years as well. I may not have always thought you were being reasonable with your due dates or your marking, but you tried to make learning as painless as possible.

Comment: This is my second year at SAC, and it is also my last year of my high school career.

Frankly, I feel happy but also sad to leave this school. During these two years, I have done a lot of things that have been meaningful and will affect my future. I have met a lot of friends like me and also people from all over the world. To me, SAC is an international training camp. Besides academics, I learned a lot of different kinds of things, like new sports and music at SAC. I tried my best to join as many activities as I could in school. Although my academics are not as strong as others, I have never regretted splitting all my time to do different things. Knowledge is important indeed, but living a meaningful life is wiser. Over these two years, I have been trying to fulfill the motto of every Andean: to become a well-rounded citizen.

Comment: St. Andrew's College began for me as one brochure among many; it's images, captivating and intriguing. Four years later, I am forever changed, as my time here has opened my eyes to new people, opinions, and possibilities. St. Andrew's offered me an education where the class material was shadowed by those you shared it with, and one which encouraged me to defy the limits I thought I'd never reach. I am forever in debt to the Andean spirit and the staff who embody it. They know not only when to nurture you, but when to give you the 'kick' you need to achieve your goals. Thank-you to everyone at St. Andrew's, I owe my confidence and ongoing success to all who shared my experiences here.

I first came to St. Andrew's College in September 2008 where I started as a Day Boy in Grade 9 at Ramsay House. For the past four years I played Golf on the Varsity Golf Team and was awarded the MVP each year. My passion in life is to play golf. I was chosen by the Golf Association of Ontario to train and compete as a member of Team Ontario for the past two years. This has allowed me to grow as a golfer and has taught me how to be a "team" player as well as excel as an individual golfer in competitive events. This all culminated in my being offered a spot on the Xavier University Division 1 Men's Golf Team. I will be spending the next four years at Xavier not only playing in NCAA Division 1 golf tournaments but also furthering my education at a highly ranked school. I wish to become very successful in life either playing golf on the PGA tour or finding another admirable career path. I want to live the dream life. St. Andrew's College has taught me many important life lessons, but most importantly it has taught me how to time manage. I learned how to prioritize my school and golf commitments simultaneously, and I feel as though I was very successful in doing this. In conclusion, I would like to thank everyone in the class of 2012 for their laughs and making it enjoyable to come to school.

Nicholas CROZIER

I knew going to St. Andrew's College would be a brand new experience, but I would have never guessed the magnitude of the adventure on which I was about to embark. Adjusting to a new environment was tough at first, but I am very glad that I persevered. SAC gave me the opportunities to discover more about myself and the world, pushed me to achieve my true academic and athletic potential, and helped me develop lasting leadership skills. And on my down time, I was able to share laughs with friends and have a great time. Many experiences have been permanently engraved into my mind: my first days as a Macdonald House Captain, the away games on varsity squash and tennis, the late night study sessions, the cadet parades, the carol services... the list goes on. My time at St. Andrew's has been amazing, life-changing, and unforgettable. Thanks for all the incredible memories!

Shout out to all the boys, you know who you are. The good times I've shared with each and every one of you has made my time at SAC an unbelievable experience. We've had our ups and downs, and those moments we're not so fond of. We've scored on the field, on the ice, and, yes, absolutely outside the classroom. The unprecedented relationships I've made with all of you will go untarnished through university. Frequent reunions are definitely required. I've won games, tournaments, and championships with a lot of you and those victories won't soon be forgotten. From JV Puck's, "All we do is win," to analyzing the rhetorical strategies of literature in English class – all will be cherished memories. To the rest of the class of 2012: best of luck in the future. Stay classy, you're all a bunch of gentlemen and scholar's.

Although I was only here for two years, I learned a lot about myself and not to take for granted things that are given to you in life. I am very grateful that I was able to make the choice to come to St. Andrew's, and I am glad that it has been more than I ever anticipated. There are many things that I will remember from my time here, but the most memorable moment I have is undoubtedly the First Football CISAA Championship win over UC--by far, the best feeling in the world!

Comment: It is hard to believe that five years have passed since I entered the gates of SAC. The years have been the best of times: Volleyball with Chico, who always pushed me to do my best; Varsity Alpine skiing and Cadets with Jingles, and the incredible Housemasters, who always made sure that residence truly did feel like home. Boarding was an experience that will stay with me for a lifetime. The memories over these years have been too many to mention. The Battlefields Tour and Liberation Tour of the Netherlands in grade 10 with the Pipes and Drums were moments that I will always remember. Both tours taught me what the word "sacrifice" truly means.

I leave these gates as a better man and a person who has been molded by teachers who truly care and by friends that will be with me for life.

Coming out of a small, private elementary school, it wasn't my decision to apply to St. Andrew's. When my parents first drove me through the gates for my interview, I knew I wouldn't choose any place else. There was an unplaceable, yet powerful, feeling stemming from the College's rich history that evoked a sense of belonging. Now, nearly five years later, the same feeling that drew me to this school is very much prevalent. I have met enduring friends, participated and competed on teams that have forever shaped my outlook, and have accomplished things that I will always be proud of. If I were to point out a single activity that has most defined my experience best, it has been my involvement in the Debating & Public Speaking Society. The mentorship I had when I joined allowed me to develop lifelong skills that I am certain will be of use in my future. In the past year, having won numerous accolades, I am proud to know that I have passed on the mentorship I received, so that the next generation can do the same. That, right there, defines St. Andrew's best: a continued history of Andrean brothers.

Arriving at St. Andrew's in grade 8 was a life changing decision. The fear of changing my school and facing boarding was very frightening for me and I didn't know how it would turn out. After a few weeks of getting used to this new setting, I realized this was definitely the place I wanted to spend the rest of my high school career. This school nurtured me and raised me to be the person I am today and I am so thankful for everything St. Andrew's has done for me. It is such an honour to go to the best school in the world and I have had the privilege to experience and learn so much from this place. As for my fellow grads, "quit ye like men be strong", and I wish you all good luck.

I have been told numerous times by Mr. Shrimpton that the school "is not an ordinary place", and after four years, I agree. St. Andrew's is all about the people you meet, and the friendships you forge. It is a place that stresses time management, teaches you a healthy balance between fun and work. I would like to thank my advisors, Mr. Roffey and Mr. Kimmerer, for all their counseling and pizza lunches over the years, and I would also like to thank the rest of the teachers I have encountered in the Andrean community. It is amazing how quickly my six years at SAC have passed. Throughout my years at SAC, I was a member of the Memorial House with Mr. P and Mrs. P. I had participated in activities such as basketball, robotics, band, and many others. Many unforgettable memories include making grilled cheese at Mrs. P's kitchen, laughing at Mr. P's jokes, hanging out with my homies at Zhang's, tutoring children, balling so hard with my buddies, winning numerous awards in math and robotics, having fun at house BBQ's and breakfasts, watching Kobe and NBA with passion, desperately waiting for deliveries, dining happily at the award-winning dining hall, enjoying my solitude at chapel, meeting all kinds of guys, being late to chemistry class, playing my trombone at multiple competitions, enjoying the bluish landscape of our laptops, timing and competing for the perfect Turnitin.com submissions, and many more yet to mention. This is the part of my life that I will never forget. Without people supporting me, including my parents, bros, and teachers, I would not have grown and had these wonderful memories. Now, I gotta get exceptionally ready, ready for the future. Countless happy images never collapse; SAC will be a place that I always remember.

I still remember when we sitting on the chairs in the lab, chatting with my soon-to-be closest friends, and goofing off in the back of the lab in my grade 11 chemistry class--it was so fun. The other one was the Metro Bowl game in my grade 12 year, when the Saints got into the finals. The bus brought us downtown Toronto, right after school that day. I hated that school bus, with the cramped seats and the diesel fumes. Right now, I am really missing that bus and all the trips that we took on it. These are the best memories of my life at SAC.

I can still remember m first time I reflected on my friend's advice about the food in the dining hall. He told me about the theme nights which are the best dinner of the week. I was one of the members of the Andrean Life Committee and I felt that I was truly involved in the development of students' lives which is a great responsibility. I was also a member of the Language Leadership Council. We ran an excellent karaoke night to not only help the new comers to get involved in the school but also for the enjoyment of the native speakers. Our leitmotiv is to adapt new comers to this new environment. At SAC, there are many varied and graceful clubs. As a member of the Chinese Cultural Society club, I always attended CCS dinner night and made friends with other members. The Student Led Group (SLG) is one of the best leadership groups I have ever attended. During SLG, I realized if you want to teach others, you have to teach yourself first. Other than these things, there are many good activities that I have a good impression of over the three years that I have attended, such as McPherson night, winter activity day, and the cadet parades. I love SAC and I am proud of being an Andrean. Here there were no girls, but only the Andrean brotherhood!

I have made so many great friends and have had so many great experiences that will remain with me for my entire life. I am so glad that I was able to take advantage of all the opportunities that were given to me. I have many accomplishments at the school in academics, athletics, and extracurricular activities. I played a sport every term I have been at St. Andrew's and have also been on the head masters honor roll every single term as well. However, the achievement that I am most proud of is becoming head prefect. It is an honor in itself to be given the opportunity to be put in a position where I could give back to a school that has given so much to me. It also gave me a boost of confidence knowing that the student population respected me as a leader and wanted me to represent them. I have fully embraced this role and have enjoyed having the power to give back to the students and having an exciting yet relaxing final year. I am very glad to have graduated with such an awesome class and most importantly with my closest friends, or should I say brothers. Looking back at my time at St. Andrew's and all the great experiences I've had, I owe it all to my Andrean brothers. My decision to come to SAC was up for grabs if it was going to be the right one or not, and it turned out to be the best decision of my life. The past two years at SAC have been nothing less than perfect. Attending a fantastic school, being involved in sports and most of all, meeting new friends has been an amazing experience. I like to thank Mr. Manning for all his work to help me become a better athlete, student and overall complete man. I like to specially thank Mr. and Mrs. Perrier for everything they have done to make my experience at SAC and Memorial House the best possible. I wish them a peaceful and enjoyable retirement. Looking back on the past two years, it has rapidly gone by and I'm going to miss being around the boys every day especially my friend Hayden Neuman. The Carol Service, Homecoming and even cadets are other special memories as well. Thank you to everyone who has helped me these past four years. To the rest of the Class of 2012: Thanks for making these past four years amazing and best of luck in the future.

I have enjoyed the time I have spent at St. Andrew's College. I have been at St. Andrew's College from grade 6 and have tried to immerse myself in all of the different activities in the school. I have been a part of the Debating Club, Middle School Council, Model UN Club and many others. St. Andrew's College has also made me focus on more than just my academics and this has led me to participate in sports such as basketball, squash, ping pong, and weight training. Specifically, I have enjoyed spending time with my friends at school and although it seems like my 7 years at St. Andrew's College have gone by extremely quickly I have enjoyed almost all of it. I know that the experiences I have had at St. Andrew's College will be unforgettable. After graduating from St. Andrew's College I am going to go to McMaster University to study science.

I still remember that feeling of nervousness and excitement, when I first drove past the gates of St. Andrew's. I knew I was going to be here for quite a long time but six years went by quicker than I expected. As I look back today, I have no regrets about the decision I made six years ago. I was told that SAC is not an ordinary place and from my experience I can sincerely say that there is no other place like this. With lots of friends from around the world, I learned a lot of things that I wouldn't if I was somewhere else. I would like to thank my parents, my housemasters, the teachers, and my friends during the years for making my experience at SAC truly enjoyable.

My time spent at St. Andrew's College will never be forgotten. Not only the times spent in the school but also outside, I have made friendships that I know will last a lifetime. Going on the Battlefields Tour was an unbelievable experience; I have some memories that will last me forever. Looking back at my time spent at SAC, I can only smile.

My time here at SAC has been a wonderful experience that is very hard to describe. It has definitely been enhanced by the athletics and social aspect of the school. Firstly I'd like to thank the day boys and boarders who had me over on weekends and treated me like family. Over the last two years I have become very close with a bunch of people and look forward to staying close with them. I would also like to thank the coaches and teachers who have helped me on my way. The people I'd like to thank the most though are my parents and grandparents for providing me with this opportunity, I love you guys.

After spending 7 years in St. Andrew's College, I have truly experienced this school in many aspects. By attending many clubs, activities, classes, sports, and life in St. Andrew's College, I believe that I have succeeded in following the school motto and developed myself into a well-rounded citizen. I have made many unforgettable memories at and with this school.

It took seven Carol Services to realize what the school meant every time they mentioned brotherhood. Stepping on to campus I had no idea where this school would take me, or who I would meet along the way. As my SAC career is winding down, I reflect on all of the friendships and good times that I have had throughout my time here. From going to Blue Mountain on winter activity day, or flying to France with the Battlefields tour with my classmates, it really has been a unique experience. The friendships I have made at SAC are truly special. Going broke on lotto tickets with Luke Mitchell, taking him to the hospital at 3am, and his random battle cries throughout the different places we go, are some of the things I will never forget. St. Andrew's isn't just an 8:30-3:30 place. You hang out with your classmates on weekends, and with all of our commitments, are never too far from the school environment. I have to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend such an amazing place. Although I had my struggles, they always pushed me to strive for better, and for that I can't thank them enough. These years have flown by and I have had the time of my life while here.

Comment: One does not simply graduate from high school. It's black gates are guarded by more than just security cameras. There are teachers there that do not sleep. Comment: Many students at St. Andrew's College have built on what they call a "career." Personally, I have not earned myself such a claim. Having had a career would suggest some sort of sacrifice and service to the school. I simply was given the privilege to learn and do what I want. My four years at St. Andrew's have been full of opportunities. The only way I can show my gratefulness is these two words: thank you. I thank my friends, teachers, anyone who shared my joy and troubles. I cannot name in fear of overlooking any well deserved person, but please take this as a personal word of gratitude. Thank you for flourishing my life with happiness. Thank you very much.

Comment: Because I didn't appreciate the education in China, three years ago, I came to Canada. Everything here was quite new for me, but with my weak English, I started a new journey. The first half year was very tough for me, especially academically. I was good at math, but I couldn't understand the questions. I fell asleep in physics class, because I actually didn't understand what Mr. Inglis was saying. There was tons of vocabulary for every class I had to remember. However, at this moment, my school has helped me to overcome all these problems.

The Writing Centre, ESL Plus and extra help from teachers really helped me. I actually learned a lot during this three-year period, and I made a lot of good friends.

I would like to thank all teachers and staff. And among the brilliant staffs which have taught me, I would like to thank Mr. Perrier for his continuous support on Math Help. I used to struggle with math, but with the help of Mr. P, I was back on track. I have been involved with lots of clubs and activities. For example, photography club, card trick club. I have enjoyable times at SAC. One of them would be seeing our first team football making it to the Finals at Metro Bowl, although we didn't bring back a souvenir, the experience was a once in a lifetime event! SAC also offered many extracurricular activities. One of them was being able to go to Mont-Tremblant with all my brothers. It was another great experience; I got to see another side of Canada, where French speaking citizens are dominant. The encounter with them also made me fly to Paris to understand more about the French Culture. Thanks SAC for broadening my horizon.

In my four year career at St. Andrew's College I've made many friends and had great times, lots of memories with some of the fellow islanders, weekends at Christian's Uncle's house, breaking several laws in one night on a bicycle, and sneaking in and out of Sifton and Memorial to chill with some of the boys. It was all a great experience, and thanks to my parents for supporting me through the ups and downs of all my experiences. It's been 4 years since I left Jamaica and I have missed every single day of being home and especially #blackoutsaturdays with the whole Jamaican crew. But every day of being at SAC has helped me grow and mature.

Much thanks to Mr. Walden, Mr. Kimmerer, Mr. Ramon, and Mr. Josselyn for being some of the most supportive teachers here. At the end of it all, I am extremely happy to leave. Who would have thought, I'd make it!

Before I came to SAC, I never thought I would end up in a boys only private boarding school where you have to wear uniforms, because I just wasn't interested and the whole idea of it seemed ridiculous to me. Then before grade 9 ended I had a tour of the school and then I realized it; this whole time I was judging a book by it's cover. I found that I came to enjoy living here and getting involved with school life. After 3 years of being part of this brotherhood, am I ever glad that I came to this wonderful school filled with plenty of opportunities. It has transformed who I am and will be an experience that I'll treasure for a lifetime. My most common nick name is 'Chao' I am from Sifton House and have been in this school from 2010 to 2012. During my short time at SAC and I have experienced so much and have been exposed to the culture and the social norms. I have never seen such diversity in such a small community. In my years at SAC, I have been in the fencing team for over the two years that I am here. The first time I have ever tried fencing and I loved it ever since, even though I have only won one bronze medal. I love being part of the Christian fellowship club as a boarder; I don't have the means to get to a church. I have made friendships here that I see potential in lasting for a long time, even after graduation. I would like to thank my parents for supporting me and encouraging me through these two years. I would also like to thank my teachers for giving me such a wonderful experience which was different from what I experienced back home.

These past four years have been the most unforgettable of my life. I want to thank my parents for allowing me to attend SAC. I also want to thank all of the friends that I have made over the course of my time at St. Andrew's. There are so many memories that I will have forever. The moment that I am most proud of is winning CISAA football against UCC in their home turf. It's already been four years since I've been in SAC. I still remember the first day I walked into SAC. I had no idea that SAC was an all-boy school before that day. Back then I regretted my decision to come to this school, but now I think it wasn't a bad choice. Brotherhood was learned from the fields. Self-regulation became familiar as I had to take care of myself in the boarding house. As I look back on myself, I grew physically and mentally more mature, so much over the last four years. Thank you, SAC for allowing me to have this chance.

Gun PARK

Three years of boarding experience at SAC provided me a lot of great experiences that will never be forgotten. Playing sports such as cricket, cross country and fencing helped me a lot in adjusting to a new environment when I first came to school. Needless to say, clubs at SAC helped me to gain leadership and teamwork experience. Moreover, the faculty is amazing. They try their best to help students not only in academics but also in extracurricular activities. It was unforgettable experience.

Kevin PARK

SAC was my home during my high school years. I experienced the all-boys boarding culture, and it was unique. In the beginning, I felt everything, such as food, language, culture outlandish. Now, I feel so familiar with everything at SAC. Even though my feelings and memories about my school are not all about happiness and joyfulness, it was impressive enough that I will remember it through my life. I made many life-long friends from different backgrounds. I hope everyone enjoys his last high school moment, and I hope everyone ends up with what he hopes. Most all, I am happy that I have a place where I am always welcomed.

Shawn PARK

The last four years at St. Andrews College have been quite an astounding experience. The first day of grade 9 feels like it was yesterday, and now it's pretty much over. It's an exhilarating time to be going to university and to be the next generation to be "growing up." Words cannot express the way I feel about this place, and I will miss "da boys" and I wish everyone good luck in university, I hope everyone is successful in university and has a lot of fun during that period. Well, it's been swell. By the beard of Zeus, stay classy, SAC.

Aidan ROMERIL

My only regret is getting so caught up in my future that I didn't stop and appreciate what I had at the school. My four years went by too quickly and I only wish I had more time here. You don't get to appreciate the things available to you until they disappear. I want to thank my Mom and Dad, for everything they've given me and allowed me to accomplish on my own. I wouldn't be where I am without you.

Matthew ROY

It is interesting how life can change when you are in the right place. Before SAC I had no interest in robotics, yet through the robotics course I was selected to go to Turkey to represent Canada at the RoboCup. Before SAC I had never had good coaches in all of my sports. Before SAC I never had the opportunities to excel in both academics and athletics. There are many guys who complain about the little things at SAC that bother them, but if only they knew the doors that are opened thanks to the commitment of the teachers here. Teachers like Mr. P in the Math Den or Ms. Groves and Mr. Swan in guidance or Mr. Shrimpton's commitment as a Football coach or Mr. Prezons and Mr. Godkins work in the robotics. These are only a few people at SAC that make St. Andrew's that right place for me. We are privileged to have the experiences we had at SAC and if we excel in later years it would have been impossible without standing on the shoulders of giants like those at St. Andrew's College.

Kevin RUSH

I have attended St. Andrew's College for 4 years, and it has been a wonderful 4 years. During my time here at SAC, I have learned several life lessons that will help me succeed in my post-secondary education, as well as the future. My favorite memory is attending the Bermuda soccer tour in my grade 10 year. The experience of playing against top prospects from Bermuda was magnificent, but being able to do so alongside my friends was amazing. The school has helped me accomplish all the long-term goals I had set for myself, and it saddens me that I will no longer be a part of this great school next year. However, the school has prepared me to succeed in life, and I am grateful for everything I have learned and everyone who has helped me grow into the person I am today.

Arjun SAHOTA

Attending St. Andrew's College has been the most positive life-changing experience I've ever had. I can't imagine the person I would be today if I wasn't given the opportunity to come to this one of a kind place.

Being a member of the St. Andrew's community for six years now has really impacted my life. I'll be missing the great people around me, as well as the teachers that have helped me get this far. A special thanks to Mr. Numa who always pushed me to work harder in my classes. As well as to Mr. Prezons, who inspired me to take Computer Science. I'd like to thank Mr. Walden and Mr. Pouch for putting up with me and Mr. Ramon for making sure I was living healthily in Sifton House.

"I can do it" is the life motto I have always lived with. During the 4 years at SAC, I cannot say all was satisfactory. Last year was really hard for me since I had to prepare for American University acceptance. Overall, my high school career was good. If I were to be asked a question "What did you enjoy the most at SAC?" My answer would be the friendships I made. I hope that we will all be friends after 10 or 20 years later. I can do it.

Jeong Min SEO

Grade 12 was definitely my best year of high school. Thank you to all the guys who I got to share this experience with. I've had a lot fun with you guys whether be through sports, pipes and drums band, committee's, or in the classroom. Thanks to my family and I wish everyone good luck in the future.

It's hard to sum up 6 years of St. Andrew's in 250 words or less. This school has given me so many opportunities; from the sports field to the classroom, the stage and the parade square. At St. Andrew's I've played volleyball, lacrosse, soccer, squash, and Nordic Skiing, some of these sports I would never have gotten in to if it weren't for St. Andrew's. Spring Awakening, my first involvement in the drama program came sadly in my last year, but was one of the highlights of my St. Andrew's career. In my first year of St. Andrew's (grade 6) I discovered a passion for the Cadet program, and am graduating as the Cadet Commanding officer and a cadet Lieutenant Colonel. I graduate as a prefect, fulfilling a legacy of excellence within this school. Carol service, Cadet Inspection, Homecoming, Macpherson, SASSAW these are all experience I will never forget. Bradley Nowell the lead singer of Sublime wrote in the song What I Got "Life is short so love the one you got" and in my short life at St. Andrew's I can honestly say that I have loved every minute of it.

Michael SIFTON

High school is an experience unprecedented by none. Whilst I sit writing this comment, I'm sitting in Dr. Evans English class reminiscing about the unbelievable times I've had at this school. "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness." This Dickens quote sums up my time at St. Andrew's. I've had my ups and downs, just like everyone else, and the lessons I have learned here will last me a lifetime. Shout out to the boys--DG, Mildo, Houst, Paps, Royler, Huff, Kelsey and Milner--for all the unreal times we've had and the times we'll have in near future. For the successes of the years to come, I wish all the Grade 11's luck, and to all the grads, I wish every single one of you congratulations, for we all made it to the next chapter. Dileas Gu Brath.

I have had an unbelievable seven years at St. Andrews College and there are so many people I'd like to thank for making my experience what it was. Firstly, I would like to thank my grandparents and my parents. I understand how big of a sacrifice sending me to St. Andrews College is, but I think it's safe to say it was worth every cent. But more than the financial sacrifice, all the time you have dedicated to me and the school has been remarkable. It may have gone unrewarded but definitely not unnoticed. Secondly, I'd like to thank all my friends who have shaped me into the character I am today, without you my experience would not have been the same. Lastly, I'd like to thank the amazing faculty members who have dedicated their lives into St. Andrews College. More specifically to Ms Chasson and Mr. Chadsey. You have taught me so much more than simply academics, but have given me so much support and advice and I'm truly thankful. Class of 2012, it's been an incredible experience getting to know all of you and good luck in years to come!

Sean SMITH

I walked into this school a troublesome, nervous boy and now I'm leaving it as a man thanks to the amazing experiences I've had that have helped me mature. I'd like to thank everyone at the school who have made my 5 years here incredible. This includes my parents, classmates, the Perriers, and Mr. Swan. The good times I have had at this school are countless and they will not be forgotten.

Sapheer SOMANI

I do not feel two years are enough to experience St. Andrew's to the fullest. Even after settling in and getting the bare essentials down, I found I could learn something new in some of the most unexpected places. Rather, one ought to join in the ninth grade to get the most out of his time here. I can say, however, that I have developed as an individual in unforeseen ways since first attending in grade 11. I have watched as my freedom to organize my time has shaped my perception of the value of hard work coupled with ambition, and I have adapted to life independent of my parents, a reality most students will not face until university. Speaking of which, while I cannot say with certainty where I will be in four years from now, I am confident that the lessons I have learned from my time here will be paramount. I now eagerly await further challenges and milestones in my career.

The past 6 years at SAC have been a great experience. I have enjoyed being on the ski and golf teams for the past four years. SAC has been the peak of my teenage life. Walking through the gates of SAC for the first time was intimidating; entering the top boy's school in Canada was a huge change for me. I have attended a co-ed school for my entire life and the transition was overwhelming. I was expecting a long transition but the welcome environment of SAC helped me adjust quickly. During my three years here I had my up and downs, had fun, got into trouble. All of my experiences at SAC are everlasting and I will remember them for the rest of my life. I thank my friends that helped me along the way and made my experience at SAC the best of my teenage life and my mother that forced me into the greatest experience of my life. For my friends, it was fun and I hope to run into you guys in the future wherever our paths might take us.

I would like to thank most of the graduating students at St. Andrew's College. It's been a great four years and best of luck to all of my friends.

Ben SUTTON

You might say that seven years is too long to attend a school, however, I have attended St. Andrew's since Grade 6. My time at St. Andrew's has been very long, and therefore very influencing on my personality. Some things I have been proud of to be a part of are: the Wind Ensemble, 1st Squash, and the Anime/Manga club. Two achievements that I am most proud of are being voted Most Innovative in the McEwen Entrepreneurship Fair and being in the Top 10 for academic average. Only my friends have the power to make my time at St. Andrew's enjoyable and I would like to thank all the friends I have cumulated over the years for being a part of my life. "Live and make decisions on your own terms" is something I have been doing in my graduating year at St. Andrew's. I have been living the "baylife" and am happy I am living it with my friends in high school. Once upon a time, I laughed at the thought of leaving a "nerdy" legacy behind. Now, I know it is nothing to be ashamed of. I am leaving behind a legacy of Neave Tetris. For all the Tetris prodigies at St. Andrew's, if you beat 133 millions, you may take the metaphorical crown off my head.

Christian TAM

The better part of my last six years have been spent at St. Andrew's College. I would not have preferred to spend my time any other way. St. Andrew's has honed my skills in arts, academics, and athletics; and has seen me through a transformation from a boy to a man. The highlights of my St. Andrew's career include the various trips to places around the world that this school has given me the opportunity to attend, the chance to try sports that I would have never had the chance to try at any other school, and the development of lifelong friendships. Whether it be hours spent in the art room putting the finishing touches on an oil painting, hanging out with my buddies in one of the various clubs I was a part of, or in the class room teaching Red Star as a staff cadet, SAC has kept me very busy, and involved with the Andrean community, since my first year here. I am sure I am not alone when I say that SAC will be missed greatly. 15800 Yonge St. will hold a special place in my heart always.

I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend St. Andrew's College, and experience all the great things it has to offer. Experiences such as the sport programs, Battlefields Trip, and the Brazil community service trip have been life changing experiences for me, and I truly appreciate how St. Andrew's played a role in developing me as a complete, well rounded man.

Robert TROCCHIA

I believe St. Andrew's has given me a great four years. I came to the school for my grade nine year and I have enjoyed my time since as a member of Smith House. Some of the best memories I have were in the school band, where I play electric and standup bass. I am the section leader of the bass players. I participated with the band in Musicfest every year starting in grade 10, and each year we won triple gold, which is a perfect score. In grade 10 the band went on to play in Musicfest Nationals where we again won triple gold. Other music highlights for me include the Carol Service, Cadets in Concert, and participating in CISMf, which is a band made up student from many school and plays at Roy Thomson Hall. Over my four years at St. Andrew's, I met many great people, and have made a lot of friends that will be missed after I graduate. I would like to thank my parents for letting me have such an extraordinary and unforgettable experience.

Justin TURNER

I have been at St. Andrew's College since grade 8. Time has flown by so fast that it feels that I was in grade 8 yesterday. I owe a big thank you to my parents for investing such much time and effort to help me succeed in my education. This school has brought out so much in me by helping me accomplish so many things, such as finally being on the Honour Roll and completing so many community service hours. I have to thank SAC and the teachers when I was in a wheelchair for such a long time, but a special thank you to Mr. Paluch and Mr. McHenry for making everything accessible to me.

Matthew WHITELAW

I remember my first day of school and hearing from a prefect that it would go by in the blink of an eye. At the time, I didn't believe him, but now sitting in the exact same position he was, I see the accuracy of his comment. Four years, yet it seems like four days. Friendships I'll have for the rest of my life, and memories to last a lifetime. The boys of the hockey team and my brothers from Flavelle, I'll never forget you. It's been a ridiculous adventure, but we've finally made it. This school has given so much to me, and I can safely say that where I end up in life will be a direct representation of the opportunities laid out for me at St. Andrew's. The person this place has shaped me into is someone that I can be proud of and know with conviction will make the right decisions. I leave SAC ready for the future, completely content with the legacy that I've left.

Robert WILLIAMS

My years at SAC weren't uneventful ones. There are lots of things that made me laugh and cry, and a lot of things that made me want to rip my hair out. But this year passed in a blink of an eye, and here I am. Exams are coming up and my graduation day is just days away. It's a funny feeling knowing that your high school life is coming to an end, you're going to university and your life schedules are going to be completely different from now on. Thinking back, I know that I had a fulfilling time at SAC and thanks to the school, I am where I am now.

Sam WONG

It is difficult to imagine that seven years has elapsed in what seemed to be such a short amount of time, and I am struggling to come to terms with the fact that my experience at St. Andrew's will soon come to a close. What a seven years it has been! St. Andrew's College has been my home, and with it, came hundreds of Andrean brothers. I'm not saying I am close to every single student here, but this family like mentality has helped me develop into the person I am today. Let's not forget the people that made this entire experience worthwhile. To my friends who, in their own special way, gave me the determination and drive to even complete these seven years, I will always cherish our St. Andrew's memories, and I can promise that none of you will be forgotten.

"You cannot dream yourself into a character; you must hammer and forge yourself one." – Henry David Thoreau. St. Andrew's College has shaped me into a man I am proud to be, and for this, I must thank you.

Haitan YU

My three years at SAC have passed quickly. Throughout my years at SAC, I was a member of the Memorial House with respectful Mr. and Mrs. Perrier. I participated in activities like basketball, badminton, swimming and so on. My remarkable experiences include making grill cheeses at Mrs. P's kitchen, LOL at Mr. P's jokes, happily eating house BBQ at Mr. P's backyard, ball so hard with my 'homies' on Friday and Saturday nights. I would like to take the time to bow and take my hat off to say thank you to all my teachers, friends, and coaches for accompanying me throughout these three years. Thinking about my future, now I gotta get exceptionally ready. Countless hilarious images and never collapse.

OUTREACH

Community Service

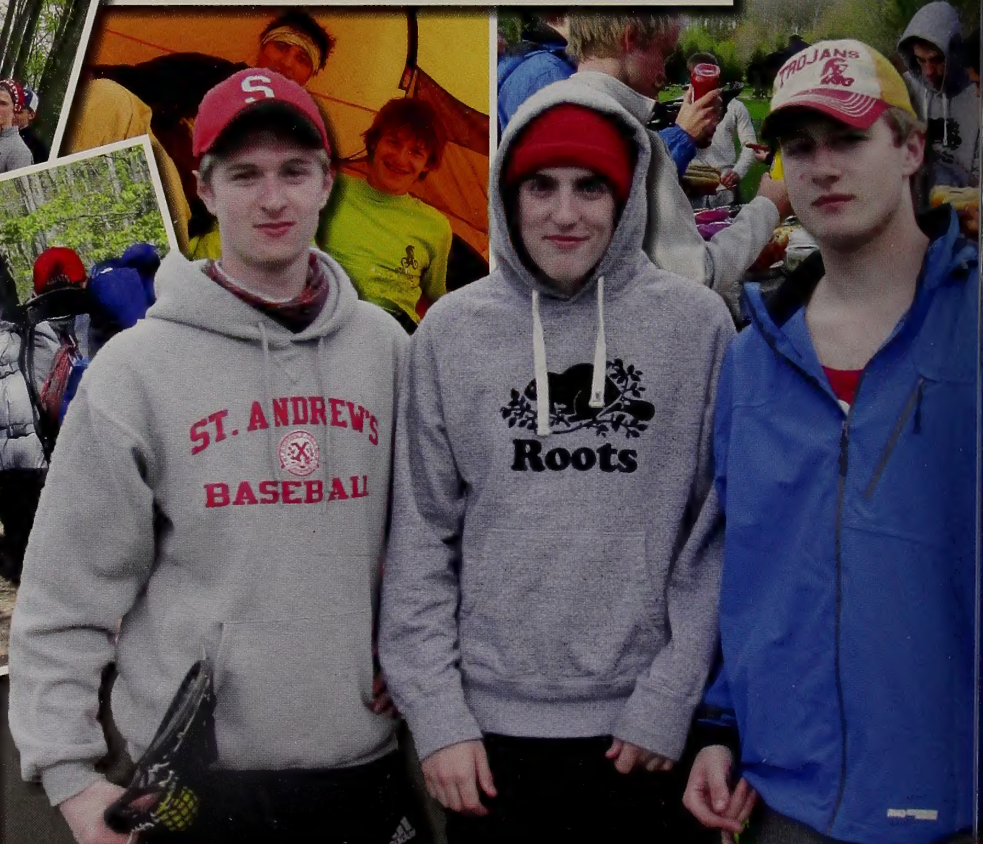

Community Service Coordinator: Wendy Pries

The Community Service Council was comprised of many different characters who were all willing to go out and organize events for the school. The President this year was Arya Ashoori and our Vice President was Stefano Scaini; we both were running the meetings and planning events. This year we started with cleaning Machell Park, a park we have been sponsoring for many years now. One of our highlights was the Big Bike Event. We raised over $500 for Heart and Stroke Foundation and got to ride a bike with multiple seats that could occupy 28 people. Overall we had a great time this year and are looking forward to implementing more events that will attract students. Our goal is to improve and create a legacy for community service next year.

Christian Fellowship

The Christian Fellowship club had an amazing 2011-2012 year. The boys came to CF with a limited knowledge and experience with God; however, they had a strong curiosity and were eager to learn. Their eagerness to learn from God's Word proved to be so beneficial, and because of it our relationships with one another, and our relationships with God, grew significantly over the school year. The group started off meeting once a week on Thursday nights, but half way into the year the Christian Fellowship schedule completely changed in order to meet on a more regular basis. We decided that meeting with fellow believers was extremely important, thus we introduced a bible study Monday nights, prayer meetings Wednesday at Break, messages on Thursday, and we started a worship band that practiced Friday afternoons. From the powerful testimonies, visits from the 'Orange Shirt Guy,' the talks at Starbucks, the games of biblical catch phrase and even our final Ultimate Frisbee game, there is no doubt that the Christian Fellowship has had some unforgettable moments. A big thanks to Ross Hinds who helped co-run the group this year and I wish the Christian Fellowship good luck in the years to come.
